Summer School Offered

Dr. Leo F. Cain, president of California State College, Dominguez Hills, announced the college has planned and will operate an active summer session program.

Classes will extend from Monday, June 24, to Aug. 2. Each of the three schools—humanities and fine arts, natural sciences and mathematics, and social and behavioral sciences—will contribute to the variety of course offerings.

Dr. Cain stated, "This marks another step in the development of the college. Since our establishment in the area the college has experienced increasing growth. Our student enrollment is expected to jump 30 per cent this March and double by the fall."

Registration will be June 10 through 14 from 1 to 4:30 p.m. and June 24 at the admissions office.
