

Down
Mexico
Way

Three days of festivities including music, games, dancing and tantalizing foods add up to Bishop Montgomery High School's "Fiesta" to be held the weekend of April 26-28. Students, in the mood, are from left, Lenny Porizek, Mary Humting, Denny Hidalgo, Sandi Foley and Mike Ruggiera. (Press-Herald Photo)

For the Grand
Ball

Members of the Sam Levy Chapter, City of Hope and their guests will don formal attire for the chapter's annual Dinner-Dance to be held Saturday, April 20, in the Grand Ballroom of the Proud Bird restaurant, 11022 Aviation Blvd. Preparing for the elegant evening, Mrs. Frank Sclarotta, president, is assisted in adjusting her gown by Mrs. Bert Lynn, left, decorations chairman, and Mrs. John Arensmeyer, tribute chairman. Co-chairmen for this benefit for the City of Hope at Duarte are Mmes. C. H. Wolpert and Neal Silence. (Press-Herald Photo)

Local Auxiliary Presents

Benefit for Home Society

PLAN SPRING LUNCHEON

Discussing decorations and final plans for the Sir Beaumain Auxiliary's annual benefit for Children's Home Society are from left, Mmes. Thomas Tucker and Richard Farrell. Proceeds from the luncheon on April 18 at the Torrance YMCA will go to the Children's Home Society, the only state-wide adoption agency. (Press-Herald Photo)

Sir Beaumain's Auxiliary of Children's Home Society will entertain at its annual Spring Luncheon on April 18 at the Torrance YMCA on Sepulveda Blvd.

Following the luncheon, the expected 250 guests will see a program presented by a local modeling school. The grand door prize for the event will be the awarding of a course at the modeling school.

Serving on the committee for the Spring Luncheon are Mmes. William LaValley, decorations; Carl Becker, tickets; Monier Bowls, entertainment; Thomas E. Tucker, publicity; Charles Burton, Fred Faulkner, Richard Farrell, Robert Clark and Al Koppensteiner, food.

Proceeds will help support California's oldest and only statewide adoption agency, Children's Home Society, A United Way agency, the society serves natural parents, their children and couples wishing to adopt.

During 1967, over 1,600 homeless children were placed with permanent, loving families through the Society's 18 offices throughout the state.

'Where the Action Is'

Montgomery's Annual Fiesta Set

Students, faculty and parents of Bishop Montgomery High School, are once again preparing for their annual three-day Fiesta to be held on the high school's athletic field, 5430 Torrance Blvd., on April 26 through April 28. Student body at Bishop Montgomery is comprised of pupils from the Torrance-South Bay area as well as surrounding towns.

The Fiesta, designated as the place "where the action is," has been planned for the enjoyment of all ages. Delighting young and old will be the game booths including dart games, coke pitch, jingle board, pinata booth, and many others totaling eighty varieties of competition.

Highlighting festivities will be an old-fashioned auction conducted by William Du Prez. Children will be attracted to the booth filled with stuffed animals to be given away. This will occur at different times during the three-day event.

Many rides have been secured including the ever popular ferris wheel, tilt-a-whirl and others as well as rides especially for the younger children. Guests will also have a large selection of fiesta type foods to tempt their appetites.

Faculty advisors have also announced that an exceptional amount of entertainment is on schedule to be supplied by the high school students as well as professional talent. Rosy Grier will entertain as will "Iron Eyes" Cody, Michael Henny, Don Wyse, the Impersonator; Damien, the Magician; Hypnotist William Jones and others including personal appearances of several Rams and Laker stars.

A full schedule of music to be played throughout the three day Fiesta has been arranged.

The coronation of the "Queen of the Fiesta" will spark Friday evening's activities. John Ericson of the Honey West program and other television credits will be on hand to crown the queen at a dance for students and their guests. Music for the Coronation Dance will be furnished by the Music Machine and Daily Mail.

General supervision and organization of the Fiesta is under the direction of Father Aloysius, OFM, vice-principal of the Bishop Montgomery School. An invitation to the public to attend the event is extended by Father Laurence E. Lis, OFM, and Sister Marie Gerard, CSJ, co-principals at the school.

John Gately and John Poresik are co-chairmen of the Fiesta. Assisting are Mrs. Henrietta Abegg, food; Mrs. C. L. Fox, merchandise; Mrs. R. Pinto, entertainment; Mrs. Frank King, daily prizes; Robert Bawolski and Frank Glossi, finance; and Mrs. Nicolas Hunting, publicity.

Fiesta hours are 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. on Sunday.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1968

B-1

The Skyriders Present

Annual All-Day Horse Show

The Skyriders, a Palos Verdes Peninsula equestrian drill team, will don their bright yellow and red tunics and sombreros to serve as hostesses at their third annual Horse Show set for Sunday, April 28. The Class "A" drill Association Show will be held at the Empty Saddle Club in Rolling Hills Estates beginning at 8:30 a.m.

The public is invited to attend the event which is open to both individuals and drill teams. Admission is free and food will be available.

Judges are Bill Bobie of Inland Empire Riding Club, English Classes; Bud Richards, Leisure World Riding Stables, Western Classes; and Bob Walker, judges command. They will award silver trophies to first places and ribbons through eighth place for novice classes and through fifth place to all others. Medal classes are open to riders of any age, who have never placed in an American Horse Show Association Medal Class.

The competition will range from Working Pairs classes to individual events such as Open Jumping, Western Pleasure, Novice English, Western Equitation, and Color Guard. Competing individuals and teams, both junior and senior, will be vying for high point awards for the day. A portion of the proceeds will be donated to charity. Co-chairmen for the show are Dee Harvey and Miss Roni Leitner. Entry forms may be obtained from Elizabeth Robinson, 20812 Anza Ave., Apt. 112, Torrance.

The Skyriders started riding together in 1945. The troop is one of the oldest drill teams in Southern California. Among the active members of the troop are three riding instructors from Rolling Hills Stables, a mathematician, an engineer, two school teachers, and a stunt rider for the movie studios. Many of its members ride in open horse shows in addition to their drill activities. Their drill is an eight minute precision ride at the canter to music.

Skyriders recently opened membership to men as well as women and new members are welcome. Information may be obtained from Miss Roni Leitner.

It's Horse Show
Time

The Skyriders, equestrian drill team, are busy with plans for their annual Horse Show to be held all day Sunday, April 28 at the Empty Saddle Club. In their colorful tunics and sombreros, Skyriders will serve as hostesses for the event. Talking over plans are, from left, front, Mmes. Hal Batesole and David Beugen; back row, Mmes. Edward Danko and John Works. The public is invited to this admission free event. (Press-Herald Photo)

MRS. CHARLES STUBBS

Mr., Mrs. Stubbs on Jamaica Honeymoon

Honeymooning in Jamaica are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stubbs, who were married Monday morning, April 15 in a 10:30 o'clock ceremony in the chapel of the First Christian Church with the Rev. H. M. Sippel officiating.

The bride, the former Mrs. Bonnie McCoy, wore a mauve silk and wool ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Her attendant was Mrs. Robert Triplitt, who was attired in a Dior blue silk and wool costume, with which she wore matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Standing as best man was Mr. Robert Downie of Los Angeles.

Accompanying the newlyweds to the airport for their departure for Jamaica were Messrs. and Mmes. Lee A. McCoy, Jr.; R. J. Triplitt, of Torrance; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Stubbs, Cheviot Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Downie, Los Angeles; and Mr. Roy L. Bynum, Whittier.

The couple plan the return trip to New York and Boston and after May 1 will be at home at 5166 Pickford Way, Culver City.

The new Mrs. Stubbs is a past president of the Torrance Woman's Club, served on the Marina District CFWC board, and was chairman of the building committee for the Torrance YWCA. For the past several years, she has been manager-buyer for a local women's apparel shop.

Mr. Stubbs is a retired assistant postmaster of Culver City.

Foster-Ross Vows Read

Miss Elizabeth Foster of Redondo Beach became the bride of Phillip E. Ross, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip E. Ross, 20117 Middlebrook Rd., Torrance, on Saturday, April 6, in a four o'clock ceremony at the Little Chapel of the West in Las Vegas.

For her wedding, the bride wore a white lace street length dress and carried a bouquet of orchids. Serving as attendants were Miss Diana Campbell of Redondo Beach and Ken Mitchell of Torrance.

Also present at the wedding were the bridegroom's parents.

The bride was educated in Germany. She has been a resident of this area for the past seven years and is employed as a designer-seamstress for a dress firm in Los Angeles.

Mr. Ross, a 1960 graduate of Torrance High School, is employed by the Cosco Fire Protection Co. in Gardena.

The newlyweds are at home at 2003 Rockefeller Lane, Redondo Beach.