

Plans Founders Day Fete

Combining the International Beta Sigma Phi theme "Turn the Key" and the South Bay Area Council theme "Happiness Is," Mrs. Louis Below, Founders Day chairman, Inglewood, announces that the 37th annual birthday will be celebrated under the theme, "The Key to Happiness."

More than 250 members and their escorts have been invited to the Proud Bird Restaurant in Los Angeles on April 27 for cocktails at 6:30 and the formal dinner at 7:30 with dancing to follow. The exciting evening will be highlighted by the presentations of awards for all three degrees for winning scrapbooks, achievement reports, and presentation of the girl-of-the-year trophies to winners in each of the 16 chapters.

Special guests will be Mrs. Lou Bowman, president, and Mrs. A. W. Anderson, historian, Long Beach Area Council; Miss Laura Chapman, president and Miss Jane Walker, historian, Los Angeles City Council; and Mrs. David Wertz, president and Mrs. Jack Murray, historian of the West Grove Council. These councils have judged the scrapbooks and achievement reports for the South Bay Area Council contest.

On the program for the evening will be Mrs. Marvin Scott, president, who will conduct the opening ritual and give the president's message; Mrs. Alan Moore, sponsor for council, invocation; Mrs. Robert Kane, pledge of allegiance to the flag; Mrs. Paul Sengstock, Jr., welcome; Miss Martha Oehlerking, message from International; and Mrs. Ivy Moore, president of the Southern California Council, who will deliver the Founders Day Pledge.

Following the presentation, new officers will be installed by Mrs. Raymond Millhouse of Preceptor Alpha Beta. They are Mmes. Lester Teeters, president; Al Macho, first vice president; Miss Helen O'Neill, second vice president; Miss Patricia La Face, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Iverson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. John Sheller, treasurer; Miss Barbara O'Bannon, civil defense.

Dancing from 9:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. to music furnished by Al Burcherio and his orchestra will conclude the evening of festivities.

A cocktail hour at the country club will be followed by a Prime Rib or Shrimp Newburg dinner and dancing to the continental strains of the Leon Guide orchestra.
