

Off To The Convention

"Friendship, Cooperation and Service" is the theme of the 12th annual convention of Marina District 18 CFWC which gets under way next Wednesday at the Airport Marina Hotel in Westchester. Delegates from the Torrance Woman's Club ready to take off for the event are, from left, Mmes. Richard Dorothy, R. E. Moffitt, president, A. C. Boyd, William Faulds, and Robert Winship, president-elect. The convention continues through Friday.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

SUNDAY, APRIL 21, 1968

B-1

Party Fetes Mrs. E. Myer

Mrs. Ellis Myer was the honoree at a bridge party Monday, April 15, at the home of Mrs. Peggy Borner, 26218 Delos Dr., Torrance. The Myers, longtime Torrance residents are moving to their new home on the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Punch and dessert were served after an evening of bridge. Mrs. Myer was presented with a magnolia tree for her new home.

Guests included Mmes. Pat Fowler, Carroll McLaughlin, Robert Powers, Tony Santella, Harold French and Beryl Gutridge.

First prize was won by Mrs. McLaughlin, second by Mrs. Fowler and third by Mrs. Powers.

For Those Faraway Places

With vacation days just around the corner, Nativity Mothers Club will present an array of the newest for travel at their "Ports o' Fashion" shows on Thursday and Friday evening, April 25 and 26 at Nativity Annex. Thinking of the South Seas as they plan decor are, from left, Mmes. Thomas Haire, general chairman, and Robert Swanson, prize chairman, watching Mrs. Ray Contreras, in a hula skirt doing a dance, with Mrs. Thomas McArthur, ticket chairman, looking on.

(Press-Herald Photo)

For Nursing Scholarships

Auxiliary Presents Fashion-Luncheon

"Flight Into Fashion," a parade of the latest designs and creations in apparel for women, will be presented on April 25 at the Ambassador Hotel under the auspices of the Auxiliary at South Bay Hospital.

Fashions will feature the new work of leading couturiers and will be modeled by local members of the Auxiliary. The show will be commented by Cyndy Streater, Women's Travel Consultant for Delta Airlines.

Colorful Caribbean styles from the workrooms of Jamaica and Puerto Rico, distinctive work from the fashion capitals of New York, Miami and Dallas, as well as the award-winning designs of Mr. Blackwell, Sydney North and Eddy George will round out the show.

Mrs. Alan Smith, chairman of the Fashion Show, said proceeds would provide scholarships for nursing students. There will be bus transportation available from the hospital to the Fashion Show and tickets may be obtained from Mrs. W. E. Butler.

For Future Nurses

Proceeds from the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary's designer fashion show and luncheon Thursday, April 25, at the Ambassador Hotel, have been earmarked for nursing scholarships. Here, Mrs. W. E. Butler, ticket chairman, presents a ticket to Mrs. Inez Hanwell, RN, nursing supervisor at the hospital who will model in the show, as two student nurses from El Camino College, L. Butler and J. White, look on.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Mothers Club to Present

Vacation Fashion Parade

Gaiety of a bon voyage party will set the mood for Nativity Mothers Club's third annual fashion show "Ports O' Fashion," to be held April 25 and 26 at the Nativity Annex. Hawaiian gown hostesses will begin serving champagne cocktails at 7 p.m. and the parade of fashions will follow at 8.

The south sea island theme will be carried out in decorations of palm trees, orchid and tropical foliage. Centerpieces of anemones by candlelight will adorn the tables. An orchid will be presented to each of the 600 guests on arrival. Among the many door prizes are several vacations for two, including three days and two nights at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas.

Mrs. Thomas Haire, general chairman of the event, has announced that Mrs. Larry Moeder will serve as mistress of ceremonies and Mrs. John Cuffel will commentate the fashions.

Other committee chairmen are Mmes. Robert Dobson, decorations; Jerome Gomen, door prizes; Louis Gallucci, hostesses; Ralph Grippe, table favors; Tom Lawlor, social patrons; Tom McArthur, tickets; Raymond Petty, refreshments; Robert Swanson, prizes; and Richard Walsh, programs.

Modeling the latest in spring and summer fashions will be Mmes. Allan DeLapp, Harlan Elkin, William Fieri, Peter Kosmes, Andre Martin, Cesar Rodriguez, William Sandstrom, Edward Santella, and John Wand.

Dowling Sisters Wed in Formal Rites

Mrs. Ella F. Mundy, 2222 W. 236th St., Torrance, is today announcing the recent marriages of her two daughters, Linda Maria Dowling, who became the bride of Kenneth Walter Grebel, and Patricia Ann Dowling, who exchanged vows with David Leonard Gregg.

Mr. Grebel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Grebel, 22817-A Nadine Circle, Torrance, and parents of Mr. Gregg are Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Gregg, 3318 Onrado St., Torrance.

The marriages were both solemnized in the early afternoon at the Narbonne Baptist Church with the Rev. Levi W. Price officiating.

The Rev. Herbert T. Wilson, retired United States Army chaplain, and grandfather of the brides, escorted them to the altar and gave them in marriage.

For both ceremonies, Mrs. Lucille Vaughn, at the organ, played the wedding marches and accompanied Ted Roberts, soloist.

For her wedding Linda Marie wore the wedding dress of the bridegroom's mother. It was fashioned of white satin and lace with a cathedral train. A floral headpiece held her shoulder-length veil and she carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis.

Gowned in mint green chiffon and carrying gold carnations, bridal attendants were Miss DeeDee O'Brien and Mrs. Sharon Ullrich. Miss Bonnie Ellis, in yellow chiffon, was maid of honor and Monica Espinosa was flower girl.

Ronald Grebel served his brother as best man and ushers were David Nickles, Robert Hildom, Dave Nasembin, David R. Cox and John Stadler. Billy Murphy was ring bearer and candles were lighted by Billy Mundy and Jesse Cox.

The 250 guests attended a reception at the Jump'n Jack Restaurant and the honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs. The newlyweds are at home at 2045 W. 225th Place, Lomita.

The bride, a 1967 graduate of Torrance High, attended El Camino College. Mr. Grebel was graduated from Palos Verdes High and El Camino.

Patricia Ann's wedding gown was an original design of white velvet with white mink cuffs. Her elbow-length illusion veil fell from a floral headpiece and she carried white orchids and ivy.

Attired in red velvet and carrying white chrysanthemums, her attendants were her sister, Miss Linda Dowling, maid of honor, Linda Keele and Kathy Lynch, bridesmaids. Monica Espinosa was flower girl and Billy Murphy ring bearer.

Larry Holloman stood as best man and ushers were Ken Grebel, Tim King, Joe Schenk and Jim Templin. Candlelighters were Billy Mundy and Tom Gregg.

The wedding reception for the 250 guests was also held at the Jump'n Jack Restaurant and the couple spent a few days at Big Bear before leaving for Aschaffenburg, Germany, for two years while Mr. Gregg serves with the United States Army.

Both are 1966 graduates of Torrance High and Mrs. Gregg attended El Camino College.

MRS. DAVID GREGG

MRS. KENNETH GREBEL

Lady Elks Note Birthday

Torrance Ladies of the Elks will celebrate their thirteenth birthday with a potluck dinner party at the Elks Hall, 1820 Abalone, Tuesday evening beginning at 6:30 p.m. Miss Erika Wenric and the South Bay International Folk Dancers will entertain. All past presidents will participate in the cake cutting. In a preview picture are two Lady Elks, from left, Mmes. William Walker and Robert Ayala, with plates ready to enjoy the cake being cut by Mrs. Ed Ward, president. Decorations for the event are being handled by Mmes. Robert Hansford, Alexander Bordeau and Robert Ayala.

(Press-Herald Photo)