

Auxiliary Installs New Officers

Assume Auxiliary Leadership

A panel of new officers was endowed with its duties of directing activities of the Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary at a luncheon at the Lobster House. Installed were, from left, Mmes. Melvin J. Wells, president; Howard Walker, third vice president; Richard McDonald, third vice president; Bryon Kimball, Jr. recording secretary; and Ernest E. Loft, corresponding secretary.

Service Hours Recognized

Following installation ceremonies, the Hospital Auxiliary took time out to pay tribute to its members for their hours of service at the hospital. Here, Mrs. Anne Huse presents service pins to, from left, Mmes. W. C. Boswell, who has chalked up 3,000 hours, Melvin J. Wells, 1,000 hours; Joseph Help-hand, 1,000 hours; and John J. Rice, 1,000 hours. (Press-Herald Photos)

Future Bride

CONSTANCE LUX
(Wyckoff Studio)

Lux - Gilliam

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Abner Lux, Three Mile Hill, Middlebury, Conn., announce the engagement of their daughter, Constance, to Michael Keith Gilliam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Keith Gilliam, 16905 Purche Ave., Torrance.

The wedding will take place at 4:30 p.m., June 29, at the Middlebury Congregational Church, Middlebury, Conn. A reception will follow at the Country Club in Waterbury, Conn.

The future bride will be graduated in June from Hood College in Maryland, where she is a home economics major. Miss Lux is a member of the Junior League of Waterbury.

Mr. Gilliam is attending El Camino College. He served as a medic with the United States Army and was stationed with the 4th Infantry in Pleiku, Vietnam.

Tonight Juniors Present

Spool and Bobbin Show

Torrance Junior Woman's Club's annual Spool and Bobbin Show will be held this evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Theme for the show is "Fashion of Dolls" with Mrs. William Faulds commenting. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Frank Patten and Mrs. Michael Myers.

Others serving on the committee for the event, which is admission free and to which the public is invited, are Mmes. Gerald Garner, prizes; Lee Davis and D. Banner, program; William Ritchie, printing and corsages; and Leon Taylor, publicity.

Honored guests invited include Marina District officers, past presidents of the Junior Woman's Club, members of the Torrance Woman's Club, Junior coordinators, Mmes. Dean Sears and Leslie Steigh. Handcrafted corsages will be presented to each honored guest.

Token gifts of sewing articles for each guest are furnished by the Imperial Bank. Door prizes to be awarded include potted plants and greenery, hairstyle tickets, sofa pillows and crystal.

Club members will hostess the evening during which the Torrance Juniors Sextette will sing and the Advanced Tap Group from the YWCA, directed by Juanita Bryson, will perform.

Original designs, use of fabrics, and tricks to sewing the home fashions will highlight the commentary by Mrs. Faulds. Patterns, types of material and uses of the fashioned garment will add to the interest in each of the many fashions to be modeled including sportswear, lounging costumes, street and party dresses, as well as formal gowns.

Setting Up Programs

Decorations carrying out the theme "Fashion of Dolls" and programs of the parade of home fashions which will highlight their "Spool and Bobbin" Show this evening, are being completed by Juniors, from left, Mmes. Frank A. Patten, co-chairman; Lee Davis, program chairman; and Michael Myers, co-chairman. The public is invited to attend the admission free event to be held at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd. (Press-Herald Photo)

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 24, 1968

B-1

TWA 'Clipped Wings' Plan Fashion Benefit

The wonderful world of paper and flowers will set the mood for TWA Clipped Wings Club Bridge and Fashion Show luncheon to be held on April 30 at 10:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Lynne Frantz of Palos Verdes Estates.

A fashion show featuring lingerie and hostess at-home wear will be modeled by Mmes. Paul Nessel, Charles Mathewson and Robert O'Neil under the supervision of Mrs. Dale Williams.

Keeping with the theme of the different uses of paper products, hostesses Mmes. Ralph Broms, John Day, Donald Fahland, Richard Clark, Patrick O'Melveny and Curtis Martins will be attired in paper costumes as they greet the guests at the champagne punch bowl. The bridge and luncheon tables will be decorated with paper accessories.

The luncheon is open to the public and tickets are now on sale and may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Lynn Koch. All proceeds will be donated to Children's Hospital for the Cystic Fibrosis Clinic.

Johnson-Hale Nuptials Read

In an evening ceremony, April 6, at the First Methodist Church in Torrance, Miss Diane Karen Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair W. Johnson, 20532 Osage Ave., Torrance, exchanged wedding vows with Walter Gene Hale. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Gene P. Hale, 1827 Marinette, Torrance.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an empire gown of organza over taffeta fashioned with a chapel train. Alencon lace appliques, sprinkled with pearls, enhanced the gown. A headpiece of daisies held her bouffant veil and she carried white roses and stephanotis.

Attired in yellow and white chiffon gowns, attendants were Mrs. James Esteb, matron of honor; Misses Karen Hale and Pamela Flemming, bridesmaids. Suzanne Johnson was flower girl.

Walter Comstedt stood as best man and the 200 guests were seated by James Morner, Steve Miller and Bart Johnson.

The Rev. Arthur Nagel officiated at the marriage which was followed by a church reception.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Hale are graduates of Torrance High and El Camino College. He is now a junior at Long Beach State College.

The honeymoon was spent in Palm Springs and Las Vegas and the newlyweds are at home at 3922 Emerald Ave.

Prior to the wedding, the bride was honored at two showers given by Miss Pamela Flemming and Mrs. Swayne Johnson.

MRS. WALTER G. HALE
(Photo by Stanfords)

Local CDA Court

Notes Anniversary

Celebrating the 23rd anniversary of the founding of Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, members, their husbands and friends will gather next Sunday morning at Nativity Church to attend Mass celebrated by Rev. Rudolph De La Cerna, court chaplain, at 11:15 a.m.

After the mass, a luncheon will be served at the Indian Village restaurant with Rev. Robert Ross of Nativity Parish as guest speaker.

Mrs. Elles Cook, grand regent, will be on hand to greet the guests. Mrs. Louie Derouin, junior past grand regent, is serving as chairman of the anniversary celebration. Assisting her are Mmes. Laura Kuhn, Robert Aguilar, Marcel Demenet, Edward Heatherman, Manuel Medeiros, Albert Moreta, Laurence Kuhn, William Hauser, Joseph Arriola, Beatrice Bundy, Gertrude Frederick, Margaret McLean, Grace Ennis, and Miss Kay Shaughnessy.

Invitations have been extended to Mrs. Eulanie Lewis of Long Beach, district deputy; and other state and district officers as well as past deputies and area chairmen.

During the past 23 years, the local court has given money and time to many charities including the sponsoring of priest brothers, seminarians, nuns, St. Ann's Home for the aged, retarded children, Camp Teresita, missions, orphanages, local hospitals, rest homes, and community projects.

Through The Years

Records of their accomplishment during their 23 years of existence are being enjoyed by these members of Court St. Catherine, CDA, as they prepare to celebrate their anniversary next Sunday by attending mass followed by a luncheon. They are, from left, Mmes. Albert J. Moreta, committee member; Elles Cook, grand regent; Manuel Medeiros, on the committee; and Louie Derouin, past grand regent and chairman for Sunday's celebration. (Press-Herald Photo)