Gala Fiesta Benefits Mexican Orphanage

Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos will stage their third annual Fiesta of Art and Music, "Fiesta Dominguera," to benefit 800 "little brothers and sisters" at a Mexican orphanage and others, on Sunday, April 28, from 1 until 5 p.m. at Villa Francesca, home of Harry Benedict.

Seventy patrons and an expected 1000 guests will be welcomed to the historic Portuguese Bend estate by general chairmen, Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Turchi of Palos Verdes Peninsula, Dr. and Mrs. Andrew J. DePaolo of Rolling Hills Estates, and Dr. and Mrs. Loren Jessup, Palos Verdes Estates. On hand to greet will be honorary chairmen Kris and Ricky Nelson and Myron Floren, along with special guests Rev. William Wasson, Rev. Mother Emmanuel, RSHM, and Sister Bernadette Underwood, RSHM.

The Villa's courtyard and gardens will be the setting for the event where "The Cabarets," 14 piece brass orchestra, will alternate throughout the afternoon with Meyito Pulido, vocalist from Mexico City, and "Simpatico Cancionero de Cuba," singing guitarist.

Renowned Peninsula and Southern California artists invited to exhibit their work for viewing and for sale include papier mache by Gemma Sexton, Gary Norton, and Joan Moe; jewelry craftsman Gary Norton; sculptors Viomah Eakin and Bill Birdsall; ceramics, by David Hartman and Victoria Little John; geometric lamp-maker, using math and lineal structures, Adib Daoud; posters of David Weideman; wood-printer Muriel Olquin; serigraphers Sister Mary Luke, IHM, and Lynn Larson; photographer Barbara Larson and cartoonist Gerald Roach.

More include stitchery of Dora Dietiker, Rosina Bauer, and Jan Chablee; 3 D weaving, Nancy Hackett; watercolors, Kenny Draper, Marion Wilcoxon, and Nan Grenier; oils, Blazenska Stanibuk, Paul Robles, Pat Cox, Jean Haskell, Lou Nash, Herman Renges, Alan Pederson, James Ronzon, Penelope Greeven, Frank DiSanto, Mildred Walker, Joan Everts.

Multi-colored umbrellas over round tables set about the garden amid bright, Mexican banners will offer guests an aperitif and an array of Mexican finger food, served by Marymount High School girls.

Spring Bazaar Set May 3 at Lomita Church

"Spring into Summer" is the theme of the Bazaar to be staged by the Lomita Ward, Latter Day Saints Church on May 3, at 1880 W. 220th St., Torrance. Hours for the bazaar are 6 to 9 p.m.

On sale will be linens, aprons, quilts, other miscellaneous handicrafts, homemade breads and baked goods, and homemade ice cream.

From 6 to 8 p.m., a ham dinner will be served. The public is invited to attend.

Committee members, hosts and hostesses greeting guests include Messrs and Mes. David Bradley, Francis Foley, Casper Klee, Fred Shuss, Anthony Cigliano, Cosimo Occhipinti, Dan Jeldum, Alan MacAller, Harold Euker, Ronald Heckman, Leslie Summerfield, John Bilich, Robert Burson, Robert Haase, Jr., Daniel Logan, T. Also, Messrs. and Mes. Paul Sturdivant, William Mannatt, and Robert Welsh; Mes. William Cordero, Ione Ransome, Kenneth Smith, Norven McKean, Eugene DeAngelis, Thomas Shea, and Mrs. and Mes. John Lombardi, Robert Murphy, R. C. Ziggrang, and William Zimmerman.

Engagement Announced

In a ceremony on Aug. 3 at Los Angeles Mormon Temple, Miss Cynthia Lane West will become the bride of S. Craig Allman.

The announcement is made today by Miss West's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. West, 5563 Seaside Heights, Palos Verdes Peninsula.

The future bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Allman, 23447 Ladeene Ave., Torrance.

A 1967 graduate of Rolling Hills High School, Miss West is now attending Brigham Young University in Salt Lake City.

Her fiancé, a 1964 graduate of George Washington High School, is a senior at California State College at Long Beach, majoring in psychology. He is president of the Sigma Gamma Chi fraternity.

Alpha Betas To Discuss Sculpture

The home of Mrs. Roy Keenan, 4317 Paseo De Las Tortugas, Torrance, will be the setting for the April 24, 8 p.m. meeting of Beta Alpha Nu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority. Assisting Mrs. Keenan as hostess will be Mrs. Theodore Holcombe.

The program for the evening will be "Sculpture and Painting." This will be presented with the combined efforts of Mrs. Robert Gaylord, Mrs. Richard Hayes, Mrs. Richard Holland, Jr., and Mrs. Gary Wires.

Following the program plans will be completed for the Monaco Party to be held for members and their husbands, Saturday, April 27, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John MacClennan, 12 Diamonte Lane, Miraleste. Mrs. Eddie Cope will be chairman for the event.
