Orchid Show Set At Alondra Park

"Orchids for Amateurs" will be the theme of the eighth annual Orchid Show at Alondra Park Saturday and Sunday. Carrying out this theme will be demonstrations on the potting and care of orchids and a display of varieties that may be grown out of doors and in patios in Southern California. Some of the largest commercial growers will have special exhibits for amateurs and advanced hobbyists. Joe E. Hagins, Orchid Society president, has extended an invitation to all orchid lovers, whether members of the society or not, to share the beauty of their flowers and enter them in the display. Entries may be made at the Alondra Park Community Building, 3535 Redondo Beach Blvd., from 4 to 9 p.m. Friday and from 8 to 10 a.m. Saturday. Viewing hours for the free show will be from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Saturday the 27th and from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday. Special classifications have been made for floral arrangements featuring orchids and orchid corsages.

Sale, Contest to Mark Thrifty's 300th Store

Thrifty Drug Stores, portable power chain saws; launched a month-long celebration this week to commemorate the opening of their 300th store. A gigantic chain-wide 300th Store Contest will be held through May 14. To celebrate the milestone, Thrifty is also staging a spectacular 300th Store Sale with hundreds of "specials" in every department. Prizes for the 300th Store Contest include a popular Ford Camper 3/4-ton truck accompanied by an Open Road Camper; a round trip for two to Central America, including 10 days hotel and sightseeing; a round trip for two to Honolulu, including seven days hotel and sightseeing; four "color" Arvin table model television sets; four Speed Queen deluxe washers; 14 portable Jacuzzi whirlpool baths; 20 Gaffers and Sattler dishwashers; 14 McCulloch

Players Continue 'Barefoot'

The Long Beach Community Players are continuing their successful engagement of the Neil Simon comedy hit, "Barefoot in the Park" at the Community Playhouse, 5021 E. Anaheim St., Long Beach. The smash comedy hit, directed by James Brittain, will be performed at the Community Playhouse Thursday at 7:45 p.m. and Fridays and Saturdays at 8:30 p.m. for the next two weeks. "Barefoot in the Park" revolves around the trials and comedic situations of a young newly married couple and the crazy, zany neighbors they encounter in a New York apartment.

COMMENTING on the 300th Store Sale and Contest, Manny Borun, executive vice president of Thrifty Drug Stores, stated, "This exciting contest and value filled sale is our way of thanking the millions of people who have been our faithful customers over the years. Our growth from one small store in 1929 to our present 300 stores in seven western states is a result of customer acceptance of our discount prices and our convenience. It is not necessary for any one to buy anything in order to enter our 300th Store Contest. Free entry blanks are available at every store. Just fill one out and drop it in the entry box. Winners will be announced shortly after the June 5th drawing."

The $18.75 gift that grows to $25.
A U.S. Savings Bond is a unique gift... one with a built-in future. And all the time that it's growing in value—earning 4.15% when held to 7-year maturity—the Government stands firmly behind it... until the day it's redeemed. When you give a U.S. Savings Bond, you're doing something more than being nice to the person you're giving it to. You're also helping to keep your country strong. Gift headquarters is at your bank. Stop in soon.
