Anniversary Party Honors Goldenweds

A reception given at the Torrance Rod and Gun Club on March 30 honored Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Richardson, 1454 W. 218th St., Torrance, who were celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The party was given by the couple's two sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Richardson of Utah and Mr. and Mrs. C. Richardson Jr. of Torrance. Also adding joy to the occasion were the anniversary celebrants' six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The serving table was centered by a tiered cake decorated in the gold and white. Mrs. Richardson wore a blue dress and an orchid corsage. Approximately 100 guests called to congratulate the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were married March 30, 1918 in Cheyenne, Wyo. They have made their home in Torrance for the past 42 years. Mr. Richardson retired from US Steel in 1962 completing 36 years with the firm. He is a member of the Redondo Odd Fellows Lodge.

Special guests at the anniversary party were Mr. and Mrs. E. Salthouse of Brighton, Colo., who were attendants at the couple's wedding 50 years ago.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. John King and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wolverton, grandparents; Lorna King, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolverton, Judy and Bruce, Roger and Gary Wolverton. Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Serl, Brian, Janell and Gretchen of Ontario; and Karin Wolverton.

Court Names Catholic Daughter of the Year

Mrs. Charles Butterfield has been named "Catholic Daughter of the Year" for Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America. The high honor was bestowed on this active member at the celebration of the local court's 23rd anniversary held at the Indian Village recently. Mrs. Elles Cook, grand regent of Court St. Catherine, made the announcement and presented Mrs. Butterfield with a lovely orchid corsage and a scroll.

The name of the local winner will be forwarded to Mrs. Arthur Rinaldi of Hawthorne, State Monitor, for judging in the Archdiocese. The winner of the Archdiocese will then be entered in the state judging for the "Catholic Daughter of the Year."

Judging for the award was based on not only her accomplishments within the Catholic Daughters but also civic, school, and charitable efforts during the past year.

Among Mrs. Butterfield's qualifications are: Area chairman for Extension, under which she instituted a new Catholic Daughter Court in Leisure World; and conducted workshops at the Los Angeles and San Diego Diocese district meetings; Archdiocese treasurer for the Junior Catholic Daughters; chairman of the March Guild for the Nativity Altar Society; board member of the Past Grand Regents Club of Los Angeles; donated many hours to the United Way and Cancer Fund drives; a member of her local election board; works with Confraternity of Christian Doctrine both at St. Margaret Mary's Church, Lomita, and Nativity Church in Torrance; court chairman of public relations; attended all of her own court functions held by courts all over the Los Angeles Diocese and is a member of the Catholic Daughters' bowling team.

The Butterfields are the parents of seven children and have 15 grandchildren.

Mr. Butterfield is employed by Cal Metal and is at present serving a term as District Deputy for the Knights of Columbus.
