

FASHIONS CAN BE FUN

Members of the WSCS of the Riviera Methodist Church and their daughters will parade home sewn fashions as a highlight of their Mother-Daughter Luncheon at the church May 11. The theme, "Spring Fling," is being enjoyed by two mothers, left, Mmes. James E. Davoli and right, Mrs. Fred W. Peak, as they see their daughters, Patty Davoli in a fashion of new horizontal stripes while Ann Peak wears a psychedelic print.

Fashion Frolic Set By Riviera WSCS

Fun and fashions are on the May calendar for the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Riviera Methodist Church when the annual Mother-Daughter Luncheon and Fashion Show is presented on May 11 at 12:30 p.m. at the church.

Mrs. Fred Peak and her committee will serve the luncheon to be followed by a parade of homemade fashions modeled by members.

Mrs. Ed Davoli will be the commentator.

The theme "Spring Fling" will be carried out in colorful decorations made by Mrs. Frank Vyzralek and Mrs. Don Owens. Mrs. Will Hoagberg is handling programs and publicity and Mrs. Sam Tilley is in charge of tickets.

Music for the event will be provided by Mrs. Richard Davis. Serving as co-chairmen are Mrs. Maurice Collins and Mrs. Earl Olson.

Guests of Club Tonight

General membership meeting of the Torrance Juniors will be held this evening at the clubhouse, 1322 Engracia. Anticipating the annual appearance of the American Field Service students, are members of the club who have donated $25 toward the American Field Service program. Mrs. Richard Spaan, program chairman, will introduce the participants, Bjorn Gunnarsson, Iceland, Joseph de Bock, Belgium; Erkki Leikoski, Finland, and Mary Luz Buerro, Peru.

Reporting on the just-completed Cancer Drive by 15 members of the club will be Mrs. Graydon Smart, Cancer Drive chairman.
