and hang on 'cause that line gets quite a bit of action.

In Gardena at Wray's Restaurant, manager-owner Bob Mumey's featuring the stewed chicken with dumplings at $1.29 plus the baked Virginia ham with candied yams at $1.75. He's also presenting carnations to the Mother's dining there on Mother's Day. Bob said that he had wished he'd thought of it sooner or he'd have ordered mums for that day then he could advertise, "Mummys for Mommies from Mumey" but alas, the time came and went. Save it for next year, Bob!

Talked with the illustrious gentlemen at Fisherman's Haven—Tom, Ralph and Jack—and they said there'd be no change in price or policy for Mother's Day.

However, they further wanted it known that "any day is a delight at the Fisherman's Haven and d'ya know what? They've got a point! Situated as it is right down there on Fisherman's Wharf with a beautiful view of both the inner and outer harbor, what more serene spot could you wish for than the calm quiet of the Pacific Ocean! (Now watch! With the kind of luck this department has had lately, it'll storm come Sunday!).

Here's still another beautiful spot with an ocean view and it's the Galley West Restaurant on the tip of the Palos Verdes Peninsula where they're planning on heralding in Mother's Day in a big way. To begin with, there's to be a breakfast buffet at $2.25—a buy! And the kids get by for a dollar.

Then the regular luncheon will be served from 11:30 'til 5, and the regular dinner from 5 'til 10.

However, from 11:30 in the a.m. 'til 5 in the afternoon there's to be a very special Mother's Day offering on the complete dinner which will include salad, potatoes, rolls, and beverage.

The variety and price range on these runs like, ham, $4.50; turkey, same price; prime rib, $5.75 and the Captain's Seafood Plate, $4.25.

Then when you finish dinner and Mom still feels like remaining a while, why not wait around 'til The Wilder Brothers come on a bit later and thoroughly regale her! She'll love 'em!

Now right down here on the corner at the entrance to the Press-Herald The Sizzler Steak House No. 63 is presenting a Mother's Day special that should intrigue one and all!

It's the New York cut steak complete with either baked potato or French fries, bread and butter and the whole thing goes off at $1.39 per each.

So remember, it's the one at 3314 Sepulveda Blvd. in Torrance and genial owner-host Jack will welcome all the ladies with open arms. Just what you can expect from second-in-command, Fred, is anyone's guess.

How about a Sonora Style Mexican Mother's Day! Well Bart Earle has three big addresses from which to choose for his Red Onion Restaurants and you can be sure, Mom'll get the red carpet treatment at any one of the three of them.

There's one at 23305 S. Hawthorne in Torrance, another up in the Peninsula Center in Palos Verdes at 27736 Silver Spur Road, then one in Hawthorne at 11625 S. Hawthorne Blvd. Now how's that for a multiple choice!

Hop Louis will have his Latitude 20 Restaurant open to welcome Mother on that day, too!

They'll be presenting their regular menu and will be open at 12 noon for Mom's convenience, if you feel in the complete dinner which will

Incidentally, had an interesting short visit with the stand-up comic that Hop had booked into this popular Torrance spot and here's a clever guy. Particularly for one so young. Thinks on his feet and has some hilarious routines with a fast delivery. Hope Hop brings this one back real soon! His name is "Skip" Stephenson. He closed out last week but whaddie ya bet, he'll be back!

Guess you already know that fast moving and heart warming British musical "Oliver" will have its initial opening tomorrow nite, Thursday, don't you!
