Hawthorne Man Seeks U.S. Seat

Campaigns for Congress
Joe Pipersky, a Hawthorne businessman and resident of the area for 22 years, has entered the Democratic primary in the 17th Congressional District. Congressman Cecil R.
King, who has represented the district since 1942, will retire at the end of the current term.

The son a Yugoslav immigrant, Pipersky is married and has seven children. He currently owns a mobile home park in Lancaster and a restaurant in Hawthorne.

A Democrat for the past 30 years, Pipersky is campaigning on a five-point platform.
He has called for efforts to stop riots, which he said "are mostly a case of looting, plundering and injure those who need help."

Pipersky also has called for legislation to stop the spiraling costs of insurance; limitations on foreign aid to make only those nations which had democratic elections eligible; and broader educational programs to make higher education "more readily available and easier to attain."

He also said present leaders in Vietnam cannot "raise an army for the defense of their own country." Pipersky
for this is the peoples own distrust of their leaders. We must search out the real truth."

Kennedy Gathering Set Here

A "People for Kennedy" party will be held Saturday beginning at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Drale, 5205 Emerald St.

The gathering will be one of nearly 100 similar parties which will blanket Southern California as climax to a statewide "People for Kennedy" day staged by supporters of Sen. Robert F. Kennedy in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"Highlight of the evening will be a visit by a special guest from Senator Kennedy's family and immediate circle of advisers," Mrs. Roger Schriefer, chairman of the party, said. Sen. Edward M.
Kennedy, Mrs. Jean Kennedy
Smith, Theodore Sorenson, and Arthur Schlesinger are expected to be among the nationally famed figures attending the various parties in the state.

Police Chiefs To Be Honored With Dinner

Police chiefs from more than 30 Los Angeles County communities will be honored at a dinner by the Peace Officers Shrine Club Monday night.

Club president Robert Young, chief complaint deputy for the city attorney's office, announced the affair will be at the Los Angeles Police Academy in Elysian Park, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Peace Officers Shrine Club is affiliated with Al Malaikah Temple of the Shrine, the world's largest.

Heading the list of law enforcement officials at the dinner will be Chief of Police Thomas Reddin of Los Angeles. Retired Chief Thad Brown is chairman.
