

'A Thousand and One Dreams'

Extravaganza In Fashions Slated

Rivaling Queen Scheherazade and her "Tales of 1001 Nights" will be the "Thousand and One Dreams" Fashion Shows presented by St. Catherine's Council of Catholic Women on May 28 and 29 at the Parish Hall, 3846 Redondo Beach Blvd., Torrance.

The stage will be transformed into the elegant and lavish throne room of Waliph, the Caliph, of a mythical kingdom of the Far East to provide an exotic setting for the presentation of fashions from two area salons.

A mere thread of an idea by Mrs. George Neeland of Redondo Beach and Mrs. Lee Gallegos of Gardena, co-chairmen, has been woven into a final tale by the vision of Mrs. Walter Hanf, Lawndale, production coordinator. An unusual arrangement of interspersing entertainment with the fashions in an intriguing mood-carrying narrative will delight guests at the two-night affair.

Mrs. Robert Schloeder of Torrance is fashion coordinator assisted by Mrs. Vernon Herbers. Models selected by Mrs. Schloeder are Mmes. Lawrence Achen, Paul Cooper, Victor Cox, Richard Doms, Richard Fitzgerald, Stanley Jackson, Larry Kuhn, Patrick Lydon, John Morgan, Clyde Polichetti, Paul Trammell, Richard Ulibarri, and the two teen age models are Rosemary DeNuno and Christi White.

Jewelry will be provided by a Del Amo firm and the make-up artists are from local beauty salons. Tickets may be purchased by calling Mrs. Keith Harmon, or Mrs. Don Croxen. Mrs. Lewis Gleason, president of the Council, extends an invitation to the public to attend.

Dame
Fashion
Rules

In a mythical kingdom of the Far East, these models will parade some of the season's newest fashions when the Women's Council of St. Catherine's parish stages its two-night event at the parish hall, May 28-29. They are, from left, Mmes. C. Polichetti, Victor Cox, Dick Fitzgerald, Laurence Kuhn. Busy setting up props, the models get a helping hand from Jake Vandermolen.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Welcome Wagon Club Gears for 1968-69 Year

Torrance Welcome Wagon Club installed its new officers at a luncheon Thursday at the Palms Restaurant. Taking over the leadership of the organization for the coming year were, from left, seated, Mmes. Dennis Kirk, first vice president; Duke Aguilar, president; Vic Esposito, second vice-president; standing, from left Mmes. Richard Irons, historian; George Robson, reservations; James R. Wells, ways and means; Wayne McElrath, corresponding secretary; Don Zavadnik, recording secretary; and William Hayden, treasurer. Mrs. Don Martin, Welcome Wagon hostess, was the installing officer. Following the installation, the club was entertained by Miss Cyndy Streater, travel consultant for Delta Airlines, who gave tips on packing for the vacation days ahead.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Sigma Kappa Alumnae

Fashion Benefit Set In Pasadena May 18

The "Sock It to Me Time Fashion-In" will be this year's theme for the annual Southern California Council of Sigma Kappa benefit Fashion Show to be held at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, May 18, at Bullcock's, Pasadena.

Proceeds from the fashion brunch will go to the Hathaway Home of Pasadena for emotionally disturbed children, to the Sigma Kappa Foundation which promotes study and research in gerontology, the Sorority's national philanthropy, and to the local chapters at UCLA and California State College at Long Beach.

An added feature of this year's fashion show will be to honor the founding of the Alpha Omicron chapter at UCLA on May 25, 1923.

Mrs. Kelly Stumpus of West Los Angeles is president of Southern California Council. In charge of this event are members of the Long Beach Alumnae chapter assisted by the Pasadena and West Los Angeles groups.

Mrs. Robert Myers of Torrance is in charge of reservations for the South Bay area. Among those attending from the South Bay are Mrs. Jerry Donohue of Palos Verdes Estates; Mrs. Patrick Cragin of San Pedro; Mrs. Warren Lieder of Hermosa Beach; Miss Carolyn Strong; and Mrs. Robert Myers of Torrance.

City of Hope Chapter - - - Sets Future in Motion

Sam Levy Chapter, City of Hope, took time out last Thursday at its annual Installation Luncheon, held at Filippone's restaurant, to take a look at its accomplishments during the past year and take a bow before turning its attention to the future and setting a pattern for concerted efforts in its work for mankind. This group, throughout the year, lends its aid to the City of Hope Medical Center at Duarte, where the fight to conquer catastrophic diseases continues. New officers for 1968-69, installed by Bert Lynn, were, from left, seated, Mmes. Harold Wolpert; ways and means chairman; Neal

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 1968

B-1

Return
The Favor

Las Vecinas Woman's Club, one of the major local supporters of the American Field Service program, was richly rewarded for its efforts at its luncheon meeting Thursday when AFS students spoke to them of their native lands. Prior to the program, the students talk over their speeches with Mrs. John Walti, Las Vecinas scholarship chairman. Students are from left, Robin Newcomer, who spent the summer in Italy as part of the program; Joe DeBeck, Bjorn Gunnarson, Erkki Leikoski, Mary Luz Bue and Danielle Jugan. The Club presented its annual check to the AFS program.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Pamela Beck Married to D. Richter

Miss Pamela Beck and Dean Richter exchanged wedding vows in a ceremony, April 6, at the Hollywood Methodist Church in Gardena.

The Rev. John Woods officiated at the wedding of the daughter of Mrs. Lucille Beck of Torrance and Mr. Robert Beck of 29 Palms, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Richter of Torrance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire coat of Chantilly lace, which fell into a long train, over an A-line gown of slipper satin.

Bridal attendants were

Mrs. Teri-Ann McQuerrey serving as her sister's matron of honor; Mrs. Carol Allen and Misses Vicki Richter and Judi Richter, sisters of the bridegroom. Melanie Ann McQuerrey served as flower girl.

Donald Nelson stood as his nephew's best man and ushers were Alan McQuerrey, Clinton Allen and Wayne Wood.

The couple's first home is in Torrance.

The bride is a registered nurse at the South Bay Hospital. Her husband attends El Camino College, majoring in business administration.

Silence, president; Margaret Yudel, hospitality; standing, Mmes. Wallace Howe, membership; Mack Brown, treasurer; Bert Lynn, corresponding secretary; Mr. Jerry Scharfman, auditor; and Mrs. Joseph Zahn, recording secretary. Pictured at the right are Mrs. Jerry Scharfman and Mrs. Bert Lynn, left, proudly displaying their pins, which were presented them for having secured their third $500 donor to the City of Hope. Mrs. Frank Sciarrotta, retiring president, was presented with a gift of appreciation by the chapter.

(Press-Herald Photo)