

Woman's Club Welcomes New Members

Enjoy
Presidential Hospitality

New members of the Torrance Woman's Club, the city's oldest federated club, were entertained at a welcoming tea at the home of Mrs. Bruce Marsh. After hearing of the work of the club, refreshments were served. Mrs. R. E. Moffitt, president of the club, offers cookies to new members, from left, Mmes. Edward P. Disbrow, Jr., Wayne Kimble, James A. Davis, Fred Adams and A. P. Spangenberg. (Press-Herald Photos)

Hospital Auxiliary Slates Horse Show

Members of the Long Beach Community Hospital Auxiliary are on their way to becoming a most learned group on horses as they ready plans for their 8th annual Benefit Horse Show, to be held June 20-23 at the Los Alamitos Race Course.

Starting on a very small scale, the auxiliary has increased the scope of the event each year until now it is one of the outstanding shows in the state. Harold Dakan is managing the show and co-chairing Auxiliaries are Mmes. F. B. Mosher, B. Wallace Neumaier, and Carleton Peters.

Committee heads are Mmes. R. E. Shoemaker, advertising; Albert Derian, box seats; William Powell, decorations; Alan Levy, exhibitors party; Hideo Karatsu, treasurer; Stephanie Swanson and Edward Shaw, food; John Coffee, press.

Also Mmes. Steadman Gould, public relations; John Huffman, queen candidates; Damon Bowlby, tickets; Ed Jaszewski and Clinton Bigelow, staffing; Leonard Haynes, grandstand; Harold Kaiser, programs; Arthur Doherty, sponsors; Jack Stanley, trophies.

There is a special price for children under 12. Members of the auxiliary have tickets available and they can be purchased at the gate during the show. Proceeds will go toward the depletion of the $50,000 pledge to pay for the Nuclear Scanning Camera now in use by the hospital.

"Getting To Know You"
Session

The New Members Tea given by the Torrance Woman's Club serves to "break the ice" as these clubwomen, gathered in the den of the Bruce Marsh home, spend time getting acquainted. They are, from left, Mmes. G. G. Gmur, Richard Rankin, Hilda Moore, Bruce Marsh, hostess; Alfred Raboch, Robert Winship, membership chairman; and Dale Bliven. Other new members, not pictured, are Mmes. A. F. Barker, J. McDonald, T. L. Maisch and L. A. Richards.

Pre-Nuptial Parties For Margot Melville

A "Flower Power" theme, carried out in a profusion of yellow daisies, created a festive atmosphere for the linen shower given Wednesday evening, May 8, by Miss Pauline Deats and Miss Jennifer Mann honoring Miss Margot Melville, who will become the bride of Howard Achenbach, next Saturday morning at the Nativity Catholic Church.

Centerpiece on the refreshment table, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Deats in Naples, was formed of yellow daisies. Daisies also decorated the napkins and place cards. On arrival, the future bride was presented with a white daisy corsage.

Guests attending were Mmes. Paul Deats, Howard Mann, Long Beach; John Melville and Carol Bradford, Torrance; John Bibler, Miraleste; William Melville, Palos Verdes Estates; Patrick Neville, Torrance; Richard Drew, Costa Mesa; John McCarthy and Nora Skillman, Torrance; and Charles Taylor, Manhattan Beach.

Also, Misses Annette Price, Long Beach; and Debra Morris, Torrance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bibler entertained at a barbecue dinner party at their Miraleste home honoring Miss Melville and her fiancé on Saturday evening, May 4.

Party guests were Messrs. and Mmes. Richard Drew, Costa Mesa; Mark Hunt, Redondo Beach; John McCarthy and Patrick Neville, Torrance; William Melville, Palos Verdes Estates; Charles Taylor and Richard Williams, Manhattan Beach; Larry Zimmerman, Long Beach.

Others were Misses Gail Hyde and Nora Skillman, Torrance; Barbara Grubbs, Hermosa Beach; Pauline Deats, Jennifer Mann, Anelle Price, Long Beach; Messrs. Daryl Hayden, Harold Le Blanc, Torrance; Don Pollen, Long Beach and Bill Tennesen, Los Angeles.

Engagement

Reid - Neal

In a high noon wedding ceremony on June 8 at the St. Cross Episcopal Church, Miss Rita Reid will become the bride of Robert Neal, Jr.

The announcement of their daughter's engagement and wedding plans is made today by Mrs. Ruth Reid, 4817 Carson St., Torrance, and Mr. Carl Reid, 2109 Ripley, Redondo Beach.

The bride-elect is a 1965 graduate of South High School. She attended Lawton Medical School and has been employed as a medical assistant for the past two years.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Neal of Santa Ana, was graduated from Brentwood Military Academy in 1963 and attended Orange Coast College. He recently completed two years with the United States Army and is now manager of the Badenock's Boat Marina in Parker, Ariz., where the couple will make their home.

RITA REID

State B&PW
Convention
Bound

Leaving Wednesday for San Francisco's Hilton Hotel where the 48th annual State Convention of the Business and Professional Women's Club is in session through today are local delegates, from left, Mmes. Virginia Hulse, Evelyn Erikson, Doris Erikson and Flora Hammetman, immediate past president. Mrs. Zoe Matthews, state president, has chosen as her theme "Better Personal World Communications."

(Press-Herald Photo)

OFF TO DALLAS

Pausing briefly before boarding an American Airlines jet bound for Dallas, Texas and the Biennial Convention of the American Nurses' Association last week, May 13-17, are from left, Virginia Levanas, R.N., and Florence DeNise, R.N., both of Torrance; with Bonnie Graczyk, R.N., Redondo Beach. The nurses are members of the California Nurses' Association delegation, which was the largest in attendance at the conclave of over 7,000 registered nurses.

TOURNAMENT TROPHY LUNCHEON

Sea Aire Women's Golf Club crowned its year with a luncheon at the Palms restaurant at which trophies were presented to the winners in the club's annual spring tournament held April 18 to 25. Walking off with honors were, from left, Tessa Dugally, for a hole-in-one; Naomi Mauk, second low net in the first flight; June Strobe, second low net in second flight; Leah Lindsay, first low net in first flight; and Lyn Secrest, club champion. Not pictured are Susie Febbo, first low net in second flight; and Ann Maccaroni, low gross. Any area women interested in joining this group may call Dorothy McNary or Mrs. Jack Strobe.

(Press-Herald Photo)