

RTD OPERATOR HONORED . . . Director David K. Hayward (right) presents April Operator of the Month award to 20-year veteran bus driver Benjamin F. Cooper of Los Angeles. Director Hayward, a member of the Redondo Beach City Council, cited Cooper as "an outstanding representative of the Rapid Transit District." Cooper also holds 16 safety award pins. The father of two sons, Cooper is active in YMCA youth work and coaches basketball and baseball.

Summer Programs Scheduled in City

Registration for summer classes and activities sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department will be held Tuesday, May 28, and Wednesday, May 29 at the Joslyn Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd., from noon to 9 p.m.

Festival Bus Trip Planned

The 21st annual International Folk Dance Festival at the Shrine Auditorium Saturday is this month's Theater Bus Trip, sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department.

Open to teenagers and adults, the Folk Dance Festival will feature ballets, chorales, dancers, singers, and native musicians from national theaters of three continents. Special added attractions will include Rene and his Marionette Theater, James Wing Woo and Company, an exhibition of Chinese Tai Chi, and the San Fernando Valley State College Choir.

Reservations may be made by calling Joslyn Center. Tickets are priced at $4.75, which includes admission, bus transportation, and insurance. Deadline for payment is today, Wednesday, at 5 p.m., at the Joslyn Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd.

Busses will leave from Torrance City Hall at 7 p.m. Saturday and return at approximately 11:30 p.m.

Fine arts classes in jewelry, crafts, oil painting, ceramics, creative stitching, and drawings will be offered. The performing arts will feature the Joslyn Youth Chorus, the Imperial Dance Band, classes in autoharp and guitar, modern dance, and basic acting for those 8 to 18 years.

Special classes for children will be offered in the areas of arts, crafts, puppetry, and sculpture. Children between the ages of 6 and 12 may enroll.

SUMMER programs also will include a Senior Citizens craft workshop, fun-through-music, great books, and a children's dog training class.

The learn-to-swim program will continue through the entire summer at the city plunge, 3331 Torrance Blvd., for those 7 years and older. Also featured will be synchronized swim classes and a swim team.

GYMNASTICS programs will be held at the four Torrance high schools, golf and tennis lessons will be offered. Classes are offered through the city giving Torrance residents of all ages the opportunity to participate in a variety of activities. Registration for non-Torrance residents will be taken the week classes begin—if openings still exist.

Candidate Night

A Candidates' Night, sponsored by the Christian Social Action Board, will be held Friday at Manhattan Beach Community Church, 303 S. Peck Ave., Manhattan Beach, beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Hooper Issues Debate Challenge to Anderson

Morris Hooper, Republican eight-year record as lieutenant governor, has challenged former Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson, who is seeking the Democratic nomination, to debate the issues in the 17th District Congressional campaign.

"The Watts riot of 1965 is the one big thing that stands out clearly in Anderson's campaign and mayor of Lawndale until he entered the race for Congress, said in a letter to Anderson he will debate him "any time, anywhere."

He disclosed he will set a time and place within a few days if the Democratic candidate fails to agree to a meeting.

"In these times, we need men in national offices who strongly support the principles of law and order," Hooper said. "By his vacillation and indecisive attitudes, Anderson was in part responsible for the destruction caused by the Watts riot."

Archery Classes Slated by City

Archery classes for housewives will begin next Tuesday. Registration may be completed at the Joslyn Recreation Center, 3335 Torrance Blvd. A fee of $3 per person for six weeks from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. each Tuesday and Thursday will be charged.
