

Sisterhood Slates Installation Event

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will have its 22nd Annual Installation Luncheon at Latitude 20 restaurant, Wednesday, June 5, at 11:30 a.m.

Rabbi Jerome Unger, Temple Menorah's spiritual leader, will do the installing. Serving for the 1968-1969 year will be Mrs. Mark Frisman as president.

Also serving on the board are Mmes. Lloyd Kosed, first vice president; Arthur Margolies, second vice president; Ben Kaufman, third vice president; David Morrison, fourth vice president; Sidney Ladenson, recording secretary; Barry Spencer, corresponding secretary; Bernard Spanier, treasurer; David Goldenberg, financial secretary; and Mark Reichard, publicity and historian.

On the committee for the luncheon are Mmes. Seymour Zimmerman and Sidney Ladenson. The chairman is Mrs. Jackson Belford, a former Sisterhood president.

The annual surprise announcement of the "Women of Merit" will be made during the afternoon. This award is given in recognition of three or more years of continuous support to the Temple and Sisterhood.

Ladies Night Staged By Local Kiwanians

The Torrance Kiwanis Club honored their ladies at a banquet meeting held Saturday, May 25, at the Jump'n Jack Restaurant, Torrance.

President Neil E. Campbell was master of ceremonies during the festive evening attended by 100 Kiwanians and guests.

Feature speaker was Mrs. Esther Reynolds Bradley, Dean of Guidance, Porterville College. Mrs. Bradley, a national renowned lecturer and family life consultant, spoke on the subject "How to be Happy though Married." Mrs. Bradley is a former professional vocalist who has performed with Fred Waring, Robert Shaw, Dick Powell, and at Warner Bros. Studio.

An orchid corsage was presented to each lady guest. Special music was under the direction of member M. Ted Meier. Torrance Kiwanis President-Elect James Giacalone was in charge of arrangements for the event.

Guests included Lieutenant Governor for Division 19 of Kiwanis, Alvin Green, and Mrs. Green; Lieutenant Governor-Elect George Dorian, and Mrs. Dorian; a Kiwanis Division Secretary Richard Thompson, and Mrs. Thompson.

Officers of the Torrance Kiwanis Club include Neil E. Campbell, President; President-Elect James Giacalone, Vice President Jack Harris, Secretary Tommy Wilkes, and Treasurer Lucius Babcock, III.

The Torrance Kiwanis Club is celebrating this year its forty-third year of community service, and each year contributes in excess of $10,000 to local projects.
