This is the year to visit Disneyland, and now is the time to make your plans. I have a suggestion that will help a lot, if you'll accept a little advice. RTD will be providing plenty of direct service to Disneyland this summer. This is service that lets you off right in front of the main gate. When the kids have walked your legs off, and you're ready to drop, you can grab a bus and scoot for home. If you're like me, the thought of fighting traffic after a busy day is revolting; so send for a new summer schedule and plan to enjoy Disneyland the easy way.

I was in San Francisco the other day and Market Street looks like London during the Blitz. They have a hole you could bury the Golden Gate Bridge in, lengthwise. All this is part of the Bay Area Rapid Transit System being built to serve the good folks of three counties around San Francisco. The only difference between those people up there and us down here is: they're digging—we're talking.

I, for one, will welcome the chance to sleep another hour and then whiz downtown on a fast air-conditioned rapid transit train. How about you?

I just got word from one of my spies that RTD is considering two new lines to Marineland. These lines will provide direct service between the Fish Emporium and Los Angeles. In addition, the cities of Hermosa Beach and Redondo Beach will have bus service to Marineland. When I get complete confirmation on this front page story, I'll put it in the column. Just between us girls, Marineland is a real treat, and with this new bus service, it will be even better.

Q.—How can I get from the Torrance Terminal to Pasadena, Orange Grove & Lake? Mrs. E.M.

A. Thanks for your bouquet, and here's how. Take the Torrance 1 line to Los Angeles, walk one block west to Spring and catch the 70 line to Lake & Colorado. Walk across the street north and transfer on the 109 to Orange Grove Avenue & Lake. I'll send you timetables and map.

Q. How can I get from Hawthorne & Del Amo to Pacific Coast Highway & Vermont? K.E.E.

A. Take the RTD 102 line on Hawthorne to Torrance Boulevard and catch the Greyhound local to Pacific Coast Highway & Vermont.

Q. Is there any service to Marineland from Redondo Beach? Mrs. O.R.L.

A. No, there isn't, but I understand some is on its way. The grapevine has it, that a line will be established to service Marineland from your area.

Q. Where does the 51 line from Hermosa Beach go in Los Angeles? Can I get off near the State Building? Mrs. R.M.

A. The 51 line goes in on Olive to 7th to the Terminal. To get to the State Building, get off at Broadway and transfer to the 5, 7, 12, 25 or 26 bus.

Send your question to Artie Dee, Transportation Editor, care of this newspaper. All questions will be answered in the column, or by mail. A system map will be sent FREE to each person writing in. NO STAMPS OR STAMPED ENVELOPES ARE NECESSARY.
