Housewife Surprises Intruders

Two 18-year-old boys were arrested on burglary charges Thursday afternoon when a Torrance housewife returned home to find the youths loitering in and around her house, police said.

Booked were Gregory Allen Lawrence of Los Angeles, a student at L.A. City College, and William H. Price of San Pedro, an unemployed truck driver. Police caught up with them at the corner of Pacific Coast Highway and Calle Mayor.

Reporting the incident was Mrs. Loretta M. Dietz, 23131 Doris Way.

Deputies Dismiss Charges Against Douglas Pullins

All charges pending against Douglas Edward Pullins, 18, 7 Addison Road, Palos Verdes Estates, have been dropped because officers lacked sufficient evidence to sustain them, it was reported here this week.

Pullins was arrested with Mark Melvin Anderson, 20, of Crinlewood St., on May 31 after Deputy William Alexander stopped Anderson's car to check excessive exhaust fumes. Inspection of the car turned up narcotics, paraphernalia, and material allegedly stolen in Redondo Beach.

Anderson is still charged with violation of the state narcotics laws and with receiving stolen property. Bail for Anderson was set at $1,250 when he was arraigned in Torrance Municipal Court.

Arrested on suspicion of burglary and suspicion of possession of heroin, Pullins was released later and the charges dropped.
