Voien-Pannett Vows

Miss Candace Denise Voien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorentz H. Voien, 1724 Hickory Ave. became the bride of Daniel Patrick Pannett, 4312 W. 180th St. in a recent evening ceremony at the St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Marie Meldrum of Torrance and the late Mr. Patrick A. Pannett.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a silk organza and Chantilly lace gown over taffeta. The chapel train was appliqued with the lace. A lace headpiece secured her illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Baby blue gowns, with olive green velvet trim, were worn by the attendants, Miss Laurie Ann Voien, maid of honor; Mmes. Larry Stamper, John Baer, Daniel Brewer and Miss Muriel Pannett, bridesmaids. Kimberly Donner was flower girl and Derek Voien, ring bearer.

Bradshaw Bowman was best man and the 250 guests were seated by George W. Hayes, John Hartman, Bob Kiznas and Steven Voien.

Rev. Paul Cox officiated. Mrs. E. Tully played the nuptial music and accompanied Janice Woodworth, soloist.

A church reception was held and the honeymoon was spent in Santa Barbara and Monterey. The new home is in Torrance.

A Torrance High graduate, the bride attended Pasadena City College. She is employed by the Pacific Telephone Co. Her husband, a graduate of Mira Costa High, is employed by General Telephone.

Wed in Chapel Ceremony

In a six o'clock double ring ceremony at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend, Miss Karen Sue Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Lucas, 1755 Juniper, exchanged marriage vows with Robert E. Sherer, Jr., of Los Angeles. Parents of the bridegroom are Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Sherer, Sr., Burbank.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore an antique satin tapered sheath, appliqued with lace and seed pearls. The gown was fashioned with a round neckline, long sleeves and empire waistline, and a scalloped detachable train. A headpiece of orange blossoms held her bouffant shoulder-length veil. Miniature orchids, phalaenopsis and stephanotis formed the bridal bouquet.

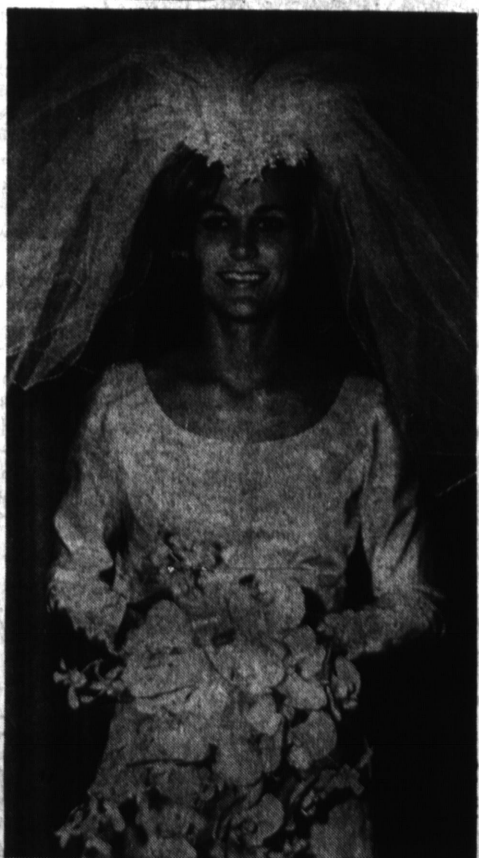

Attired in aqua chiffon gowns, attendants were Mrs. Larry Wagner, mother of honor; Mrs. James Cameron and Miss Marianne Marek, bridesmaids.

Alfred J. Scheid stood as best man and ushers were Paul Woodward, Cedric Scott, Thomas Lucas and Robert Sims.

Rev. Loring Young officiated at the marriage, which was followed by a reception and dance at the Knights of Columbus hall in Redondo. Mrs. Thomas J. Lucas registered the 150 guests.

Following a two weeks honeymoon in Tahiti the couple will be at home in Los Angeles.

The bride, a graduate of Bishop Montgomery High School, is a customer instructor for Pacific Telephone.
