Giants, Pirates Battle for

The race for the Torrance American Little League pennant boils down to Tuesday's game between the Giants (15-3) and the Pirates (15-4). The Giants were blanked by the Tigers, 6-0, as Dave Fucci hit two home runs. One was with the bases loaded. The Giants also won a 1-0 shutout from the Red Sox as Jon Weir hurled a no-hitter and Jim Eveland hit a home run.

GAYLA CHILCOTE

Gayla Will Represent West High

Gayla Chilcote, West High School coed, will represent her school at the Lions All-Star Football Game August 8 at El Camino College. The pretty homecoming queen will be featured during the halftime show of the mid-summer high school football classic. She is also selling tickets to the event at her school and in her community.

Olympic Water Sports To Be in Long Beach

Competition to select the United States' Olympic Games eight-oared and singles rowing teams will start at 8 a.m. each day, July 12-14, it was announced as Long Beach neared completion of plans for its full summer of Olympic activity. Competition in the large shells for such major university and club crews as Harvard, Pennsylvania, Washington, UCLA, the Vesper Boat Club of Philadelphia and others will continue for four hours each day, Friday through Sunday. Ticket prices for the 10,000 general admission seats in new bleachers at Long Beach Marine Stadium will be $2 each for July 12 and July 13, and $3 for the July 14 finals. A "season ticket" has been set at $6 for the three days. In all, nine final trials are scheduled for Long Beach, first of which is the 20 kilometer walk June 29 at Cal State College Long Beach. The event, in which Long Beach's Don DeNoon is favored, begins at 5:30 p.m., and there will be no admission charge.
