Hit-Run Charges Lodged

A glassy-eyed youth was arrested Saturday night after the car he was driving slammed into a parked vehicle on Donora Lane and continued on to strike another parked car on Entradero Street near Sturgess, police said.

Arrested on hit-run charges was 20-year-old Gale Douglas Garner, 21100 Wood St., Apt. 1. Garner was also charged with driving under the influence of a narcotic and possession of marijuana, after police found a hand-rolled cigarette on the floorboards in the car.

Police said Garner had difficulty getting his wallet out of his pocket when they arrived at the scene of the second collision. Garner also had difficulty standing up and his speech was almost incoherent, police said.

Employers To Supply Job Data

About 6,000 Los Angeles area employers will be asked to identify their vacant jobs on June 28, Arthur Morgan, Los Angeles metropolitan area man-power administrator for the State Department of Employment has announced.

Most large employers in private industry and government, will be queried about their total number of employees, the occupations in which job vacancies exist, and the rate of pay offered, Morgan said. The survey will also include representative firms with a smaller number of workers.

Job vacancy data from the surveys are used to identify occupational shortages in connection with manpower training programs.

Plans Set For Sale of Area Hotel

Negotiations have been completed for the sale of the Pen & Quill Hotel in Manhattan Beach, Calif., to Pacific Host, Inc., by United Savings and Loan Association of Inglewood, it has been announced.

Ray Berney, chairman of the Board of Pacific Host, a 26-unit hotel chain operating in California, Oregon, and Washington, said the 150-room, multi-million-dollar hostelry already has undergone considerable remodeling.

Located three minutes south of Los Angeles International Airport, the completely air-conditioned business resort hotel contains the world-famous Pen & Quill Restaurant and Cocktail Lounge, plus convention and banquet room facilities designed to accommodate up to 1,000 persons.

Vurlon E. (Pat) Partridge has been named manager of the Pen & Quill.
