Torrance Junior Club Wins State Acclaims

Torrance Junior Woman's Club, under direction of Mrs. Robert Vroman, president, was the recipient of two awards at the 40th Annual State Convention, California Federation of Woman's Clubs, Junior Membership. Scene of the convention was the Bakersfield Civic Auditorium. Theme of the convention was "Golden Opportunities for Service and Friendship."

The Awards Festival found Torrance Juniors' Americanism Chairman, Mrs. Ronald Large, receiving a plaque for First Place Award noting outstanding service and co-operation with the American Merchant Marine Library Association. Books and magazines are collected and donated by Juniors throughout the year. This is a continuing project, and anyone interested in donating to the "Library" is asked to contact Torrance Junior Woman's Club.

Mrs. Alex Bishop, education chairman, received a Third Place Award for the club's efforts in their Headstart project, Library Services, and scholarships presented annually to students in the Torrance schools.

Twenty-six club members attended the convention.

headed by Mrs. Vroman, president, and Mrs. J. Douglas Hedde, first vice president. Mrs. Michael Riley, member of Torrance Junior Woman's Club, was installed as the 1968-69 president of Marina District during formal installation ceremonies at the convention.

Bethel Initiation Held At Eastern Star Meeting

Highlighting the meeting of the Torrance Chapter of the Eastern Star was the initiation of four new members by the Torrance Bethel of Job's Daughters. Initiated were Joan Larson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Larson, associate matron and patron of the OES, Diane Wilson, Marleen Buslin and Cherisse St. Hilaire.

Also at this meeting, Grace Hoffman, chairman of the International Temple Committee of General Grand Chapter and a past matron of the State of California, visited the chapter.

Ethel Dowling, deputy grand matron of the 76th district, was escorted and presented.

Also escorted were worthy matrons and patrons of the 76th district Carolyn and Dudley Griffin of Playa Linda; Anna Mae and Elden Hostetter, Wilmington; Edith

H. Fashbaughs Note Golden Anniversary Beta Sigma Phi Press Luncheon Set Saturday

Showered with congratulations by members of the Torrance Adult Club, of which they are members, were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Fashbaugh, 727 Portola Ave., who were celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The anniversary party, given by the club for the two popular members, took place last Friday at noon. The wedding ceremony was reenacted with Mel Wagers, president of the club, officiating. Clara Dunbar served as the matron of honor and James Daniel stood as best man. An appropriate poem was read by Mrs. Ora Donaldson, club secretary.

A decorated wedding cake was presented to the couple who were also given a golden money tree.

Ice cream and cake were served to the 55 club members attending the party. Arrangements for the party were handled by Jean Boyle and Bertha Knudsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Fashbaugh were married June 22, 1918 in Cleveland, O. They have one son, Robert Fashbaugh of Torrance.

Mr. Fashbaugh was born in Crystal Springs, O. Feb. 26, 1886. Mrs. Fashbaugh, born in Vienna, Austria, Sept. 16, 1900, came to the United States in 1906.

The couple lived in Canton, O., where Mr. Fashbaugh was employed by United States Steel until 1920. That year, they transferred to Torrance and he continued with U.S. Steel until his retirement in 1953.

Gary Feted On Birthday

Playmates played the role of Superman at the fourth birthday celebration for Gary Wolverton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wolverton on Opal Street on June 5.

Muscling up to the birthday cake with Gary were Doran Fish, Jean-Marc Herrouin, Kim and Scott Tierman, Michael and Scott Williams and Gary's brother, Scott. Unable to attend, but sending gifts, were Glenn Baker and Patrick Barker.

On June 9, relatives gathered for a family birthday dinner to honor Gary and his Grandmothers Wolverton. Dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. John King and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wolverton, grandparents; Lorna King, Mr. and Mrs. Don Wolverton, Karin, Judy and Bruce, Mr. Roger Wolverton and Scott Wolverton.

Unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Serl, Brian, Janell and Gretchen of Ontario.

Festival To Benefit Work Team

A Summer Festival of Fun will be held on July 4, 5, and 6 at Riviera Methodist Church, 375 Palos Verdes Blvd. Hours on all three days are from 9 a.m. until 7 p.m.

Included in the festival will be games, prizes, surprises and a wide variety of food. Rummage and garage sales will be held during the festival.

Funds raised from this project will assist the work team of 20 youth from the Riviera Methodist Church who will go to Mexico in August.

The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Lester Teeters, president of the South Bay Area Council of Beta Sigma Phi sorority, and Mrs. Robert Nickelson, press chairman of the Council, will attend the Annual Press Luncheon, sponsored by Southern California Council, to be held Saturday, June 29, at 12 p.m. in the Rainbow Room of the Charter House Hotel, Anaheim.

The Luncheon is given for the benefit and information of the twenty-three area council presidents and club reporters from the Southern California area who will attend.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson, president of the Southern California Council of the sorority, will preside over the affair and Mrs. Alvy Moore, junior past president, will give the invocation. The hostess for the occasion, Mrs. Frank Di Stefano, SCC press chairman, will introduce the honored guests and participate with Mrs. John B. Spring and Mrs. Jay O. Kinney, in the program which will prompt a question and answer period regarding Beta Sigma Phi publicity.

Fossums Visit Daughters, Attend Three Graduations

Dr. and Mrs. Oscar Fossum, have returned from a 10 day trip on which they visited all three of their daughters and attended three graduations of grandchildren.

In Palo Alto, they visited Dr. and Mrs. Cleve Burke (Joy Fossum) and attended the graduation of their daughter, Karen, from the Palo Alto High School. In Saratoga, they were guests of another daughter, Mrs. Philip Adams (Myrna) who was leaving this week for Athens, Greece to join her husband for a month's tour of Europe. Mr. Adams is a research economist at Stanford University and had been on assignment in Ethiopia.

Returning to Santa Barbara with Dr. and Mrs. Burke, the Fossums attended the graduation of their grandson, Michael Burke, from UC. In Ventura, they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tuttle (Arlys) and attended the graduation of Gayle Tuttle from Ventura High School. Gayle leaves this week for an 8 weeks tour of Europe.

Accompanied home by the Burkes, the group celebrated Father's Day with dinner at the Palms.
