COUNCIL

Mrs. Hiro Muranaka, parliamentarian of Torrance Council of PTA, announces the cancellation of the summer PTA course. A new date will be announced later in the summer.

At a recent Consumers' Workshop for Housewives attended by two State PTA chairmen, among the important points of information disseminated was the homey tidbit: "The first law for economical meals is, LEARN TO COOK."

A special commendation was received from 33rd District of CCPT. Mrs. Jerry Baker, outgoing president of Torrance Council, received the plaque from Mrs. E. V. Bright, district president.

Workshops for all Council chairmen are scheduled to be held in September at the First Christian Church at Maple and El Dorado. The Communicator has further details.

SEASIDE

Seaside PTA sponsored a picnic for the eighth grade graduates on June 12 at Sea Aire Park. Graduation was held at South High School on June 13 at 6:45. The graduates then danced to a "live" orchestra from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. sponsored by the PTA. Another annual Hot Dog Sale for the summer school students is planned for July 11 by the PTA. Plans for next year's program were announced at the board meeting, and the programs will follow the theme "Season Tickets," according to Mrs. John Thayer, first vice president.

NORTH HIGH

Mrs. Elroy Wittrock, president, met with the executive board of North High PTA to outline plans and activities for the coming year.

Committees appointed to meet during the coming months include program, ways and means, membership, hospitality, by-laws and standing rules.

The hospitality committee will plan a Teachers Brunch for Wednesday, Sept. 11, from 9 to 11:30 a.m.

The executive board will meet Thursday, July 11, at 10 a.m. in the North High conference room.

Classes in Modeling, Yoga Set at YWCA

Miss Mary Deseree will instruct special classes in yoga as well as charm and fashion modeling as a feature in the summer schedule at the Torrance YWCA.

The six weeks series beginning this Monday will start with the yoga class from 7:30 to 8:30, followed by the charm and modeling class from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Featuring special techniques of exercise for beauty and grace the yoga class will demonstrate principles of complete relaxation and recharging through simple basic exercises and concentration.

Classes in fashion modeling, "Beauty in Motion," will stress posture and carriage, with practical pointers on "floating walk," proper turns, graceful hands, how to handle accessories; climbing stairs, right entrances and exits, sitting and "grace in cars."

Students are asked to wear soft sole (not tennis) shoes, capris or slacks, and bring a mat or blanket for yoga classes.

Similar classes instructed by Miss Deseree are being planned for daytime scheduling.

Those interested may call the YWCA for more information regarding fees and registration.
