ANN LANDERS  Teen Boy Offers Advice

Dear Ann Landers: I have had enough of you.

 1 am a 17 -year-old boy who thinks your advice to the girl whose steady boyfriend has "wandering Instead of tel handed idiot "a leling the girls to give the eighthanded idiot "a clop on the chops" or however it isyou worded it, why didn't you put the blame where it belongs-on the girl?

No guy in his right mind ever starts to paw a perfect lady. The chick who suddenly finds a guy's hands ath

Sometimes it's fot in words, it's the way the girl gets herself together. The miniskirts are a pretty good eyeful when a girl is standing up. When she is sitting down, it's like she is wearing a bikini. No normal guy can look at all that flesh and not get ideas. that fit like sausage casings are worn to get guys that fit like sausage casings are worn to get guys excited, and when a normal guy gets excited, he wants to do more than just look.

So please, Ann Landers, since you are supsposed to give advice, give it to the girls. They are the ones who need it.-TIRED OF BEING TURNED ON.

Dear Tired: There's a great deal of truth in what you say and I'm glad you took the time in what you say and I'm giad you took the the to say it. The moral of the story is simply this, to say it. The moral of the story is simply this, girls: Don't let your clothes issue any invitatons you don't mean to fulfill. When you turn a guy on, he can be aufully hard to turn off.

Dear Ann Landers: I am a school teacher who feels parents in this country need a better understanding of where we fit into the lives of their children. Will you please help by printing this letter?

Teachers generally choose the profession because they care about children.
2. Teachers try to treat all students alike. If a eacher is unusually suspicious of a child, it is because that child has behaved in a way that has caused the teacher to mistrust him.
3. Teachers do not "give" grades. They only record duced.
4. Children with good manners and a record for achievement will be given preferential consideration and special honors and privileges.
5. Teachers grieve almost as much as parents when a student doesn't make the grade. They feel sad becuuse they love all children and want them sad because they love all children ard want instm to succeed--SOMEONE WHO CARES IN AUSTIN

Dear Someone: The teachers you describe are the GOOD teachers. Although there are a great many more good teachers than poor ones, ures up to your lofty standards.

Confidential to Can't Stand The Sight of Them: Why are you so vehement? Are you perhaps unsure of your own masculinity? Your six-page diatribe suggests deep hostility that must be rooted in some care to admit. Talk your feelings out with a professional and rid yourself of this unhealthy hostility

You Have to Work at Marriage

> My dears, in case you did not know, marriage is a job. To keep any job, you have to work or you're fired. With divorce figures soaring every divorce figures soaring every day, once you lose this job, odds are against your ever odds are against your ever getting another like it.
Even the dullest job Even the dullest job ca become interesting if you yourself take an interest in it. Thus, if your marriage is not all, you expected it to be, sit down and ask yourself just what you did expect of it. Then list all the things you have contributed to make hose things come true. Television, Hollywood he advertising agencies with their constant romanticizing of daily life have made you expect far too much from marriage. Your mothers have brought you up to believe marriage is a great, wonderful fairy tale and that the only thing wrong with it is that, in their cases, they had the misfortune to grab the wrong man,
Because of your unrealistic, belief that the minute you

Not only do you expect such obviously impossible be-
