Named to Appear in Edition Of 'Outstanding Women of America'

Selected to appear in the 1967 edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America" are three local women, Mmes. Robert Vro-man, Douglas Hedde and John "Outstanding Young Women of America" is an annual biographi-cal compilation of 6,000 outstanding young women between the ages of 21 and 35, who have distinguished themselves in civic and political activities.

Selections for the edition are made by the Board of Advisory Editors, Mrs. Dexter Otis Arnold, honorary president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, chairman Clubs, chairman.

United States Senator Margaret Chase Smith, in her introductory message for last year's edition of "Outstanding Young Women of America," said, "This book calls attention to the great capabilities of our young women and their attention to the great capabilities of our young women and their ability to get things done."

Mrs. Esther Peterson, assistant secretary of Labor, says the women included in the 1967 edition "are in the tradition of women who combine the best virtues—vision, vitality and personal strength. These young women leaders are lighting the way for more and more truly developed women of tomorrow."

The publication was conceived by the leaders of the nation's women's clubs. They felt that young women who give their time for community projects should be recognized. The recognition of these outstanding women can serve to inspire others to give their time to additional civic responsibilities sponsibilities.

Local women's clubs throughout the country submit nominations for the book each year. A different group of outstanding young women is included each Guidelines for selection include unselfish service to others, charitable activities, community service, professional excellence, business advancement, and civic and professional recognition.
