Montgomery Wins Again

The classic game of the Camino Real League basketball race may have taken place Friday night when Bishop Montgomery won a 64-61 verdict from St. Bernard's.

The game, played at Montgomery, was decided in the final four seconds when Greg Collins took a rebound on Dave Sulliman's potential winning bucket.

Montgomery had taken a 62-61 lead with 19 seconds to go as Collins made two free throws.

St. Bernard's used most of the final 19 seconds to run down the clock but Sulliman finally took a shot and missed with only seconds remaining. Collins took the rebound and hurled the ball to Bob Jamison who picked up another goal at the final buzzer.

The Knights, who led 21-12 at the end of the first quarter, began to lose control of the game on fouls. Four starters had four fouls when the game ended.

Larry Wiggins, the usual high scorer for Bishop, got only eight points, but relief came from Steve Pattearson with 18, Jamison with 12, Collins with 11, and Jim Roach with 14.

Roach played one of his best games.

High pointman for the game was Skip Laurie of St. Bernard's with 24.

Montgomery will try to keep command of the league lead next Friday against Fernin Lasuen. The Padres are tied with Montgomery at 2-0.

Fernin beat Crespi, 58-35, while Murphy edged St. Monica's, 37-35.

'Gundo Upsets West

Fred Herman used a one-and-one foul situation to give El Segundo a 53-52 win over West in their Pioneer League basketball game Friday night.

The two free throws came in the final five seconds of the game. The outcome left both teams with 1-1 records.

Aviation began pulling away with a 2-0 mark, beating Palos Verdes, 78-56, on Paul Westphal's 39 points.

El Segundo scored its biggest win of the season in upsetting West. The Eagles took a 6-0 lead and played control basketball the remainder of the contest.

Tom Sandowich scored 17 points and Hal Smalley rallied the Warriors to 14 straight points in the second half as West went from a 7-point deficit to a 7-point lead.

El Segundo cut the lead to one point with 16 seconds to play and Herman was fouled with five seconds left to win the encounter.

Spartans Lose to Redondo

Redondo ambushed South High with an awesome shooting exhibition for a 71-45 basketball victory Friday night at the South gym.

Peppery Robbie Fowler of the Seahawks rifled his first three shots through the bucket to launch his team's convincing victory.

After the score was 9-9 in the first quarter, Redondo began pulling away and was in front by 10 points in the second quarter.

Anthony Chaffins unleashed 11 field goals for his 22 points. In Wednesday's opening games in the Bay League, Redondo dropped a 56-50 contest, to North while South hammered away at Ingleswood for a 99-45 win. Jim Owens of South set a school record with 49 points.

South will draw a bye when the league resumes action on Wednesday. The Spartans opponent next Friday is Santa Monica.

Alex Gamble scored 22 points to pace Beverly Hills against Torrance. The Normans pecked away with 1 to 4 point gains in each quarter to gain the win.

Torrance meets Long Beach Poly in a non-league game Tuesday and will play at Rolling Hills Friday night.

SKY LEAGUE

Beverly Hills Rules Tartars

Beverly Hills and Morningside stand atop the Sky League basketball standings. The Normans kayoed Torrance, 58-50, in the winners' swin gym Friday night.

The race for the pennant appears to be a 2-team contest between Beverly and Morningside. They will meet next Friday night at Morningside. Each has a 2-0 record.

Torrance has an uphill climb after losing to Culver City and Beverly Hills in its first two games. The Tartars are a three-time champion.

Alex Gamble scored 22 points to pace Beverly Hills against Torrance. The Normans pecked away with 1 to 4 point gains in each quarter to gain the win.

Yastrzemski Named Sports 'Man of Year'

Boston Red Sox slugger Carl Yastrzemski has been named sport Magazine's "Man of the Year" for 1967 in its 21st annual "Top Performer" selections.

Yastrzemski, also named "Top Performer in Baseball," had his finest season, leading his team from a ninth-place finish in 1966 to a pennant in 1967.

Yastrzemski, in his seventh major-league year, began to transform himself from a good but sometimes disappointing ballplayer into one of massive heroic proportions.

Palmer last year recorded the second lowest winning score in L.A. Open history—269. But, of course, the ground and the course set-up will be entirely new as the event moves to Brookside.

Palmer will be after an unprecedented third straight Los Angeles Open title. Palmer is the fourth man to win back-to-back in the L.A. Open. The others are Ben Hogan, Paul Harney and the late MacDonald Smith.

Arnold Palmer will be on deck to defend his Los Angeles Open Golf Championship. The 42nd edition of the $100,000 links classic is set Jan. 24-28 at its new home, Brookside Park Golf Club in Pasadena.

A physically tired North High basketball team came to life in the second half of its game against Hawthorne Friday to run up a 73-45 Bay League victory.

The win, coupled with a 56-50 triumph over Redondo on Wednesday, gives North the league lead with a 2-0 record.

The Saxons have a 16-2 season record, but they are noticeably fatigued after a 17-game schedule in December.

The physical and mental strain on the squad prompted Coach Skip Enger to start his second team against Hawthorne. The idea paid off with a first team rebound in the third quarter which netted a 16-4 advantage.

Hawthorne led, 16-13, at the quarter, but pulled ahead, 31-28, at halftime.

For three quarters of play, North scored 20 points for North. Coach Enger said Nielson has been playing good basketball. He expects the entire team to get back on the beam now that the regular 2-game weekly schedule is in effect.

Parnelli Will Drive Ford In Motor-Trend 500 Race

The lead role in the rain-soaked drama that was the 1967 Motor Trend/Riverside 500 has been cast again for the 6th renewal of the world's biggest and richest stock car road race, next Sunday at Riverside Raceway.

Parnelli Jones, who broke Dan Gurney's monopoly at the 2.7 mile road course last January will be back to try it again, driving a 1968 Ford entered and prepared by Bill Stroppe of Long Beach.

Since the 500 was inaugurated in 1963, Jones has been Gurney's most formidable challenger, but until last year, was never able to keep his car running the distance. When the tide did turn a year ago, it was with an ironic twist. Gurney became the victim of mechanical problems after a running battle with Jones, and Parnelli finally went on to victory. Adding to the irony, Jones did it with the aid of the same Wood brothers pit crew that helped spark Gurney's four wins.

This year, while Jones will again be under the same racing colors, he will not have the Wood brothers on his team. Instead, they will be back with Gurney—and Cale Yarborough—forming what many experts believe to be an unbeatable combination.

By the same token, these same experts agree, if anyone knows Riverside's tricky course as well as Gurney, it's Jones. He's proved it not only in the 500, but in the Times Grand Prix which he won in 1964. Jones and Gurney are the only two drivers to win

Decision Was Not Convincing

Ever since their first fight last October 5, followers of Mando Ramos and Frankie Crawford have been arguing as to who is the better man.

Crawford won that bout via a close 10 round split decision before 10,000 fans at the Olympic Auditorium. But today there are still some doubters about the outcome.

For those who missed the first match, a rematch has been announced for Jan. 25, at the Olympic with no home TV.

Crawford, 26-5, with 14 knockouts, went into the first contest a 2-1 underdog. He took the play away from Ramos in the early rounds and barely held on for the victory.

For the first fight there was a weight difference of seven pounds. Ramos was 134, while Crawford stepped in at 127. It's expected virtually the same advantage will be Ramos' for the second bout.

Ramos is the Long Beach teenage whiz who packed the Olympic
