The RTD operates over 100 lines in many communities, ranging all the way from foothill cities to beach resorts One of the most interesting of these routes is the 64 line stretching from Pasadena to Pomona. This line has only trips each way a day, but I can assure you, it is one of the most colorful trips you could take. Passing Santa Anita on Foothill Boulevard it winds through Monrovia Duarte, Azusa, Glendora, San Dimas, and La Verne to Po mona, You can see the last vestage of orange and lemon production in the Valley, a passing era, indeed. Send for timetable and enjoy an afternoon of beauty.

How can you tell what kind of a game it is 'til you have of a game it is 'til you have a program? Same way with the bus system. Our program is the system map showing all the lines. We are most anxious to see that you have a copy, but first we have to know who you are, and where you live. Drop me a line soon.

From the reports filtering in from the Los Angeles Zoo they can squeeze in a few more animal lookers. Unless you've been there, I am sure you'll enjoy seeing the new Los Angeles Zoo for the first time. This is the kind of an attraction that can be seen over and over, especially by the kids. RTD line 23 offers daily service to the Zoo, from connections in Hollywood, Glendale, Pasadena and the San Fernando Valley. The 23 line goes directly to the en-trance of the Zoo, eliminating a long walk. Send for your copy of the system map and a Zoo timetable and Join the
