

Lovely To Look At

When the Torrance Recreation Department presents its annual exhibit of music, arts, crafts and culture of the "Gay 90s" era, members of the Torrance Woman's Club and the Junior Woman's Club will be there to greet guests ele-gantly attired in the turn-of-the century costumes. Preparing for the four day "Art in Recreation" exhibit are clubwomen, from left, Mmes. William Faulds, Jerry Kruetz, Marcel Derouin and Richard Rankin. Busy completing objects for the show are David Zirkle, painting and Jerry Ward on the floor, finishing a sculpture. Over 2,000 pieces of art, the work of 600 local housewives, may be viewed by the public every day from 10 a.m. until noon and again from 2 until 4 p.m. (Press-Herald Photo) (Press-Herald Photo)

A Moment of Pride

For "outstanding service" in Lomita's City Beauti-ful program in 1967, Mrs. Flora Hameetman, center, was presented with a plaque by the Lomita Cham-ber of Commerce recently. Looking on are, at left, E. R. Beck, manager of the Lomita Chamber and Lee Stratford, president of the organization. Mrs. Hemeetman is current president of the Torrance Business and Professional Women's Club. (Press-Herald Photo) (Press-Herald Photo)

Clubwomen in Hostess Roles

Annual Art Exhibit March 26-29

Creative work of over 600 Torrance housewives, businessmen and students will be on display late this month when the City of Torrance Recreation Department hosts its second annual "Art in Recreation" Exhibit at the Joslyn Center of the Arts, 3335 Torrance Blvd., begin-ning Tuesday, March 26 through Saturday, March

All art work is by students in Joslyn Center art classes, and covers such areas as ceramics, creative stitchery, jewelry, oil paint-ing, sculpture, pottery and watercolor.

Participants include hous-ewives who attend the 13 morning classes run in con-junction with an imaginative activity program for pre-school youngsters. Additionally there are numerous evening classes attended by both men and women. * * *

Press Herald

Again assisting with pre-parations for the five-day display which features music, art, crafts and culture of the "Gay 1890's" are the Torrance Woman's Club and the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, who will also serve as hostesses during the event.

* * *

Augmenting the over 2000 pieces of art to be displayed will be special demonstrations, films and a "Barber-shop Quartet". Costumes of the late 19th century will be worn by those involved in the program.

General viewing hours are scheduled at 10 a.m. to 12 noon and 2 to 4 p.m., Tuesday through Friday, and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday.  $\frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{2} \times \frac{1}{2}$

In addition to the regular public viewing hours, special public viewing nours, special demonstrations are schedul-ed for the following days: Tuesday, 7 to 9 p.m., jewelry and oil painting; Thursday, 7:30 to 8:30 p.m., a film fea-ture entitled "Pickles in My Oatmeal"; Friday, 7 to 9 p.m. jewelry and sculpture and jewelry and sculpture, and Saturday, 2 to 3 p.m., pot-tery and watercolor.

According to Erika Muhl, fine arts supervisor for the Recreation Department, during these times, the artists involved in the various programs will be on hand to discuss their work.

The public is invited to attend any or all of the sessions where information concerning the many art classes taught at the Joslyn Center may be obtained.

KAREN SUE LUCAS (Seeman Photo)

Lucas - Sherer

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Lucas, 1775 Juni-per Ave., entertained immediate families at cocktails and dinner at their home on March 3, during which the engagement of their daugh-ter. Karen Sue, to Robert E. Sherer, Jr., of Los Angeles, was announced.

The wedding will take place on May 31 at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend. The bride-elect is a 1962 graduate of Bish-op Montgomery High School. She attended El Camino College and is employed as a customer instructor for the Pacific Telephone Co., Compton.

Her fiance son of Dr. and Robert E. Sher-er Sr., Burbank, attended Webb School for Boys in Claremont and was graduated from Hoover High School, Glendale.

Mover High School, Glendale. Mr. Sherer received his bachelor degree from Stanford University, where he was a mem-ber of Beta Theta Pi fraternity. In 1964, he earned his masters degree in finance from the University of Southern California, Employed as an investment banker, he is with the Corpo-rate Finance Department, E. F. Hutton and Co., Los Angeles.

Handweavers Hold Biennial Conclave

Hameetman served as chairman of the City Beautiful

The original planning for the beautification of the City of Lomita was instigated by H. P. Osborne, who agreed to participate in the pilot program, purchasing and financing the planting and maintenance of trees in front of his business estab-

* * The first program of 15 trees snowballed to the ac-tual planting of 33 trees in December of 1967, "With the planting of the first tree, businessmen accepted the concept of the program and

we of the Chamber of Com

Tabbys Participate

Committee.

lishment.

Handweaving, a necessary craft in the colonial days of America when all clothing had to be hand-woven, still furnishes an interesting hobby for mod-ern women, as evidenced last weekend when 600 weavers, representing 21 guilds and study groups throughout the nation gathered at the International Hotel for their sixth biennial conference, sponsored by the Handweavers of Southern California by the Handweavers of Southern California

1 2

sA. The South Bay area group, the Tabbys joined

During Conservation Week, March 4 through 9, the committee participated in the planting of 25 more trees in the city. Serving on the Beautifica-tion Committee with Mrs. Hameetman are E. R. Beck, Jack Erdley, Joel Rivers, H. P. Osbone, and Stan Green * * *

Mrs. Hameetman is the current president of the Tor-rance Business and Profes-sional Woman's Club and is a Senior Registered Repre-sentative with California Investors in Long Beach. Re-cently, she was the recipient of a diamond pin awarded to her by her company for her years of service and her sales leadership and efforts to the investing public.

A plaque for "outstanding service" in the 1967 City Beautiful Program in Lomerce are grateful that they are trying to make Lomita a more beautiful city in which to live," stated Mrs. mita, was presented to Mrs. Flora Hameetman at a re-Hameetman. cent meeting of the Lomita Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. * * *

In Yellow, Orange, and Red

Handwoven materials, in the orange, red and yellow fiesta colors, were used by the abbys, local hand-weavers guild, in making their revolving carousel booth for the convention last weekend at the Inter-national Hotel. Setting up the booth are Mrs. Vic-tor Matson, coordinator, ready to get on the carou-sel bidding Mrs. F. B. Stump to join her as Mrs. Richard Seebode, pushes ticket sales. (Press-Herald Photo) other groups of the southland, the Samplers binwinder and Sley Bells, in preparing booths for the Weavers' Fiesta.

The Tabbys, organized in 1949, have been plan-The Tabbys, organized in 1949, have been plan-ning their booth for over a year, hoping to again-win the theme ribbons. Tying in with the theme "Weavers' Fiesta", the group's 10 by 8 foot booth contained a revolving carousel with the canopy of handwoven yardage in yellows, oranges and reds. A wooden cartoon lion, tiger, and hippopotamus, with gay handwoven saddle blankets, rode the musical carousel. Each of the 10 members of the mouse four vards of material in the designated group wowe four yards of material in the designated colors.

Members of this group meet one day a month member's home to further study the craft. The at a member's Tabbys, as well as the other groups participating in the conference, are non-professional and pursue weaving as a leisure time activity.

A. A A

* * 2

Area members are Mmes, Richard Seebode, Tor-rance; Tennies Kolts, Harbor City; Frank Stump, Redondo Beach; Victor Matson, Torrance; Lewis Roland, Rolling Hills Estates; John Brown, San Pedro; George Henzie and R. A. Crosby, Los An-geles; Miss Helen Stuart, Los Angeles and Miss Hazel Harrod, Santa Monica.

Mrs. Seebode and Mrs. Kolts spend one day a week as volunteers at Harbor Hospital threading looms and instructing patients in weaving. Auxiliary

Up To

Bat

Auxiliary to the Redondo Little League will stage a Auximary to the Redotto Little League with stage a get-acquainted dance Saturday evening March 30 at the Retail Clerks Hall, on Belleporte Ave. in Har-bor City, Dancing, food and prizes make up the pro-gram. Auxiliary officers, up to bat, are from left, Mmes. Robert Wardrop, James Vallandingham, Ro-bert Mance and Donald Bartlett, Mrs. Charles Dhelse beinemer institute the public to actend Bre Phelps, chairman, invites the public to attend Pro-ceeds will go to support the Little League. (Press-Herald Photo)