

Forgery Suspects Nabbed

A tipoff from a suspicious store clerk led police to the arrest of three forgery suspects Monday afternoon.

Employees at the Foreman and Clark store in the Del Amo Shopping Center summoned police when suspects attempted to make a purchase with a credit card believed stolen.

Nabbed at 2:20 p.m. in front of a supermarket in the center were Billy Worton, 28, of 22519 Island Ave., Wilmington, and Guy R. Davies, 25, of 1514 Wallcott St., Redondo Beach.

A short time later, police arrested a third suspect Ralph (Pat) O'Leary, 31, of 20524 S. Berendo St., Torrance. The arrest was made at a restaurant on Sepulveda Boulevard.

Police said they confiscated a loaded pistol from Davies.

Also listed as charges against the three were suspicion of burglary, armed robbery, conspiracy, and carrying a concealed weapon.

County Will Install New Lights

Supervisor Kenneth Hahn has instructed the Road Commissioner to prepare plans for the installation of traffic signals at the intersection of Victoria Street at Tamcliff Avenue in the Carson area. "The need for signals at this location arises as a result of the expanding enrollment of the California State College at Dominguez Hills and the increasing traffic on Victoria Street," he explained. He said every effort will be made to have the signals in operation before school commences in September.

Synthonized Swim Classes Scheduled

Openings are still available over with a Red Cross swimmer's card. Torrance's annual Aquacade, presented August 9, 10 and 11, will acquire its entire cast from swimmers in these synchronized classes.

Participants will be under the direction of Susan Sacks and will learn grace and body control while just having fun in this imaginative sport. Register at the Plunge at the next class meeting.
