Solon Charges Unruh Pressured Committee

Capitol News Service
 SACRAMENTO — Assemblyman Charles J. Conrad (R-Los Angeles) has charged the Assembly Rules Committee has been pressured by Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh to deny Conrad permission to introduce a bill which would take scholarships away from students convicted of campus riots, sit-ins, and seizure of buildings.
 Conrad said, "Two of the four Democrats on the rules committee had co-sponsored the original bill, but not one Democrat would join the three Republican members and give me the necessary majority to obtain permission to present the bill to the assembly."
 The assemblyman said "the hard pressed California taxpayer should not be required to subsidize any student who engages in riots, sit-ins and seizure of buildings. Since my bill was introduced after the cutoff date, it was necessary to obtain permission of the rules committee. This was refused after Speaker Unruh indicated his opposition."

 Referring to Unruh as "Big Daddy," Conrad charged the speaker had undergone "another political conversion, Last Saturday he conducted a love-in with the California Democratic Council after having been the sworn enemy of the CDC for many years. Opposition to legislation which attempts to restore peace to the California campuses is in keeping with the far-left philosophy of the CDC," Conrad concluded.

MWD Vacancy
 A special meeting of the Torrance Water Commission has been scheduled for 7 p.m. tomorrow. The session was called to fill a vacancy on the Metropolitan Water District board.

Fingerprints Lead Police To Suspect

Fingerprints on the inside of a burglarized vehicle have led police to the arrest of a suspect in two recent burglaries at Ted Green Chevrolet, 23505 Hawthorne Blvd. Taken into custody Monday was 18-year-old David L. Haselwood, 2904 Dalmead St.
 The youth is held in connection with burglaries during June which netted thieves more than $1,300 worth of automobile parts from the Chevrolet agency.

Awarded Grant
