

WINS SCHOLARSHIP
... Jacqueline Birch became the first recipient of a Lutheran High School scholarship at commencement exercises at Ascension Lutheran School recently. The award is sponsored by the Lutheran High School Association of Southern California.

Marshal Seeks New Deputies

Capt. George Brown, commander of the Torrance Division of the Los Angeles County Marshal's Department, announced today that there are openings for young men between the ages of 21 and 34, in a career as a deputy marshal.

Captain Brown explained that the marshal is the enforcement officer of the Municipal Court. His duties include seizing and selling property under order of the court, serving court processes, executing warrants of arrest, maintaining order in the courtrooms, and assuming custody of prisoners appearing in court.

ACCORDING to Captain Brown, the beginning monthly salary is $715, increasing to $842. Benefits include paid vacations and sick leave, longevity pay and shooting pay, regular eight-hour shifts between the hours of 5 a.m. and 11 p.m., with weekend work only in emergencies. An excellent opportunity for promotion is provided through competitive examination.

Captain Brown said qualified candidates will begin a 12-week training course soon. After training, deputies will receive duty assignments at one of the 28 municipal court locations in the county.

Further information on requirements and filing procedures may be obtained at the local Marshal's office at 825 Maple Ave. or at the County Civil Service Commission office located in Room 493, 222 N. Grand Ave., Los Angeles.

Camp-Out Set for Handicapped
