OVERSEAS MESSAGES . . . Employees of Harbor General Hospital with family stationed overseas had a chance to send a free recorded message to them recently when a Red Cross Voices From Home mobile unit visited the hospital. Assisting hospital nurse Mrs. B. Hyde (right) of Gardena, whose son, Pfc. Michael Hyde, is stationed in Pleiku, Vietnam, are Red Cross volunteers Mrs. Eileen McDorman (left) and Mrs. Aldo Bussi, chairman of the Voices from Home program. Some 23 families sent taped messages and photos to overseas service men.

Red Cross Will Send Gift Bags to Soldiers

Red Cross volunteers in southern Los Angeles communities have begun preparation of 1,600 Christmas gift bags which will be sent to servicemen and women overseas. Men's bags will contain writing materials (tablet, self-sealing envelopes, ball point pens), grooming items (razors, blades, comb, towels), food items (50 packets of flavored soft-drink powder, tinned candy or nuts), and playing cards. They will accompany an additional 9,650 bags from Red Cross Service Centers throughout the city to several overseas locations including South Vietnam, according to Mrs. Eric M. Jacobsen of San Jedro, this year's gift bag project chairman for southern Los Angeles communities. Hand lotion, suntan lotion and face lotion will be included in women's bags, she added.
