

SIDEWALK ARTIST . . . Drawing on sidewalk is Shawn Link, 9, third grade student at Sam Levy Elementary School. Levy students highlighted their summer art festival with a display of sidewalk paintings done in washable chalk. Featured inside the school cafeteria were arts and crafts projects made in summer-school and a display of artifacts on loan by neighborhood adults.

Communications Classes Expanded by El Camino

Additions to the curricula in the Communications Division at El Camino College for the coming year include a new major in photography, a new photography class for non-majors, a general studies class in communications media, and a class in English for Spanish-speaking students.

Photography 51, a special class for non-photo majors, will stress darkroom techniques as well as using a camera properly. Four sections of the class will be offered and each will be instructed by an experienced professional photographer.

Stenographers' Posts Open at Lennox Station

The Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department has openings for intermediate stenographers at the Lennox Substation, 4331 Lennox Blvd., Inglewood.

Starting salary is $476 with annual increases to $560 per month. Applicants must be able to take shorthand at a rate of at least 90 words per minute.

Information about the positions may be secured by calling the station between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

W. A. Kamrath, journalism instructor, will teach General Studies 31, a class which explores modern mass media of communications, covering the legal and social implications of the various media. Dr. Jeannette Campiglia, Spanish instructor will instruct the new English "C" class, which is a class for Spanish-speaking students who wish to learn English.

"Formerly, these students participated in the Spanish classes in an attempt to speak better English, but the new class is expected to be an improvement in this area," Dr. H. L. Swanson, dean of the division, said.

Registration for the fall semester at El Camino begins Aug. 26 and ends Sept. 6.
