Nice American Eyes 2 Trophies

Everyone knows that guys like Superman, Batman and Captain Marvel don't hang around for handshakes and rewards after they perpe-trate their good deeds.

But those fellas are pikers compared with Mark Donohue, the Captain Nice of American road racing, who stands a good chance of accepting two trophies Sunday at Riverside.

Donohue is going into the $20,000 Mission Bell Trophy $20,000 Mission Bell Trophy event for Trans-American Sedans at the Raceway with the championship already cincbed — by winning nine of the 11 races completed thus far on the 13-race schedule.

Wrestling Offered for Youngsters

Wrestling program for boys in the 6th through 12th grades will be held Sept. 11, 16 and 17 at three Torrance high schools.

In the program sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, the participants will learn the basic funda-mentals of wrestling, physical fitness and how to improve their endurance and strength from three high school wrestling coaches.

Teaching at North High will be Bob Janko, who will hold classes on Mondays be-ginning Sept. 16. Classes instructed by Dave Tolefson will be on Tuesdays at South High beginning on Sept. 17. Andy Harris will coach boys participating in the classes at Torrance High on Wednesdays, beginning Sept. 11.

At all the high schools, classes will be at 7 p.m. for beginners and 8 p.m. for intermediates.

There is a registration fee of 50 cents for each school semester. Registration for the fall semester of Septem-ber through January will be taken at the Joslyn Cen-ter, 3335 Tohhance Blvd.

Parade Set For Tennis Billie Jean

A parade through two miles of downtown Long Beach streets Friday will honor Mrs. Billie Jean Moffitt King.

The parade route was an-nounced as details neared completion for a full day of activity honoring the queen of women tennis players. Billie Jean first played the game on Long Beach public courts 13 years ago as a be-spectacled 11-year-old.

Mrs. King, who will be returning to home this week to begin play Sept. 14 in the Pacific Southwest Open Tournament, will be honored guest at a civic luncheon in her honor at the Pacific Coast Club.
