Broker Award Given

Dan Ingram, Torrance realtor, has been awarded a Real Estate Education Certificate by the California Real Estate Association, it was announced by H. Harold Lippard, president of Torrance-Lomita Board. Ingram received a Certified Member Broker (CMB) designation.

Under the certificate program, Lippard said, realtors can earn the CMB designation and salesmen can earn the designation Certified Member Salesmen (CMS). To qualify, a realtor must have completed three years of service as a member of a local real estate board and have completed 12 units of study in CREA's educational program.

These must include satisfactory passing of courses in sales, investment, property, real estate administration, and real estate executive.

Salesmen, to earn the CMS designation, must complete three years of service as a local real estate board member and satisfactorily complete eight units of study in CREA's educational program.

Wilmington Campaign Scheduled

Joe Blatchford, Republican candidate for Congress in the 17th District, will spend the next week campaigning in the community of Wilmington.

The week's activities, sponsored by the Wilmington Committee to Elect Joe Blatchford to Congress, will coincide with the celebration of Mexican Independence Day at the Holy Family Church.

Other highlights of the Wilmington campaign will include a reception-garage party Thursday evening at 7:30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Pacheco Sr., 1054 Eubank St., tours of the Avalon Boulevard business district and Wilmington residential areas; and appearances before a number of fraternal clubs.

Blatchford, 34, has pledged to help Wilmington by "being a voice in Washington to end the neglect of the Mexican-American, the Los Angeles Harbor, and the fishing and maritime industries."

The Republican candidate, who is married to the former Winnie Marich of San Pedro, opened a permanent Wilmington headquarters last month at 1037 Avalon Blvd. The Wilmington campaign is being headed by Hal Ezell and Carlos Villalobos.
