

Community Fair Set Sept. 25-29

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 18, 1968

B-1

Lending

a

Hand

Needed, the Jayettes heeded a call from their husbands, the Jaycees, and are lending a hand with the Community Fair and Carnival set for Sept. 25 to 29. Entangled in a roll of tickets, of which they are in charge are, from left, Mmes. Chuck Dishon, Jerry Markwell, Phil Sheaffer, Don Woodward, and Chuck Battelle. Jayettes will also staff the hot dog and soft drinks booths. (Press-Herald Photo)

Junior Chamber Sponsors Weekend of Fun

A mammoth money-raising project, a Fair and Carnival, is occupying the time and efforts of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce. John Dunbar is serving as chairman of the event, proceeds from which go to the group's philanthropies especially the youth program.

The Fair and Carnival will take place on Carson Blvd., back of Fashion Square from Wednesday, Sept. 25 through Sunday, Sept. 29. Hours on Wednesday through Friday are 3 to 11 p.m.; Saturday 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. and on Sunday from 12 noon to 10 p.m.

The Jaycees have called on their wives, the Jayettes to help with the undertaking. The Jayettes will take care of the ticket booth and will sell soft drinks. They will also realize proceeds for their many projects. Mrs. Phillip Sheaffer, chairman of this committee, is assisted by Mmes. Chuck Dishon and Richard Smart.

On Saturday evening a workers party will be held. In charge of the refreshments are Mmes. Harry Morrow, Donald Woodward and Jerry Markwell.

The Red, White and Blue

Sparks U.S.A. Up, Up and Away Fashion and Music Spectacular

Members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club are busy selling tickets to their Fashion Extravaganza and Musical Review, "U.S.A. Up, Up and Away," to be held in an enormous white tent in Fashion Square Del Amo on Friday, Sept. 20.

The show, which will feature red, white and blue decor, will begin at 11 a.m. with champagne and fancy finger sandwiches. All shops in Fashion Square are participating in this gala event, which will feature the latest Fall fashions, modeled professionally and commented by Miss Holly Mitchell, who has done many shows recently on television.

Chairman of the event is Mrs. William Trommald a vice-president of the Juniors. Her committee includes Mmes. Richard Spaan, Riley Oliver, Gerald Garner, Richard Leonard, Robert Schultz and Donald McKenzie.

An invitation has been extended to Miss California, Sharon Kay Terrill, formerly the 1968 Miss Torrance, as guest of honor.

Mrs. Douglas Hedde, president of the Torrance Juniors and Mrs. Larry Smith, philanthropy director, announce that proceeds from the show will support their philanthropies this year which include the Torrance Scout Center, which they co-sponsor with the Torrance Civitans; CATHY (Community Assistance to Homeless Youngsters); Headstart; Southwest Association for the Mentally Retarded; sponsorship of an Amerasian boy through the Pearl S. Buck Foundation and the new Torrance Child Guidance Clinic at the South Bay Children's Health Center.

Limited tickets are available and may be obtained by calling Mrs. William Trommald, 2364 W. 236th St.

Newlywed Nielsens At Home in Torrance

Over 200 guests assembled at the St. Catherine Labourer Church on the afternoon of Aug. 17 to attend the marriage of Miss Devra Dempster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dempster, 16918 Kornblum Ave., and Keith Nielsen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Nielsen, 2083 Reynosa Dr., Torrance.

MRS. KEITH NIELSEN

The Rev. Edward J. Landreau officiated at the double ring marriage ceremony.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing an A-line gown of delustered satin and organza enhanced with Alencon lace sprinkled with seed pearls and aurora borealis sequins. The dress was designed with a long organza train decorated with lace appliques. A lace headpiece held her four tiered shoulder-length veil and she carried white orchids, roses and stephanotis.

Attendants were Misses Aileen Mozeleski, maid of honor; Margaret Frost, Karen Nielsen, and Susan Dempster, bridesmaids.

Tim King stood as best man and ushers were Dale Dempster, Douglas Drozd, Bruce Hara, Larry Helphand and Steve Lassere. Stewart Hickey was ring bearer.

A dinner-dance followed at the Lobster House and the honeymoon was spent in San Francisco. The newlyweds are at home at 23525 Arlington, Apt. 229, Torrance.

The new Mrs. Nielsen was graduated from North High and is employed by a Gardena firm.

Her husband, a graduate of South High and El Camino College, is head of the drafting department of the City of Cerritos.

Adela St. Johns Is Auxiliary Speaker

Adela Rogers St. Johns, well known author, will be the guest speaker at the South Bay Hospital Auxiliary's luncheon on Sept. 26 at the Princess Louise Restaurant in San Pedro.

Adela Rogers St. Johns' byline is well known to millions of Americans who have read her work in magazines serials and over 200 short stories. In the last 10 years, Mrs. St. Johns has written several books including two best sellers, "Final Verdict" (about her father's life) and "Tell No Man."

When Mrs. St. Johns was a newspaper writer, she was sent to cover almost every big news story of the mid-twentieth century. From newspapers, she moved into magazines where her work has been in demand for over 30 years. Finally, she has written some of the best stories used in films.

The public is invited to make reservations for lunch with the Auxiliary. Members of the Auxiliary will meet at 11 a.m.

Social hour is at 11:30 and lunch at 12 noon. Mrs. Harry Snider of Manhattan Beach is the telephone chairman.

Future Bride

SUSAN MARTIN

Martin - Craig

Mr. and Mrs. Zenus E. Martin of Torrance announce the engagement of their daughter, Susan Alice, to Michael Lyn Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Craig of Gardena.

The bride-elect was graduated from North High School in 1967 where she was varsity cheerleader and student council recorder. She is now an executive secretary with the Automobile Club of Southern California.

Her fiancé, also a 1967 North High graduate, served on the student council as commissioner of athletics and also played varsity football. He is now attending El Camino College.

The engagement was revealed at a patio party honoring the couple at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Las Vecinas Club

Begins 20th Year Thursday

Las Vecinas Woman's Club will begin its 20th year in the South Bay area with its first fall meeting tomorrow at the Indian Village restaurant. A social hour will be held at 11 a.m. with luncheon at 12 noon. Mrs. M. Wallace Peterson is the 1968-69 president.

At this time, Mrs. Robert Martin, membership chairman, will present new provisional members to the club. They are Mmes. Chris Hehlum, Lorraine Reigelman, L. S. Chappellear, Frederick Bromm, Wayne Dodds, Gerald Sherman, Charles Meng, Ralph Wood, Clarence Turner, and Miss Bernice Scott.

Las Vecinas was founded in 1948 by a group of Hollywood Riviera women. Today its members come from all over the South Bay area. It is mainly a social and philanthropic group, supporting the American Field Service, Harbor General Hospital, both in donations and volunteer work, Del Amo Gardens, Lark Ranch, Torrance YMCA.

Serving with Mrs. Peterson on the executive board are Mmes. Joseph Jay, first vice-president; Jack J. Reed second vice-president; William R. McDonald, recording secretary; J. D. Smillie, corresponding secretary; Richard Cass, treasurer; Don D. Malone, junior past-president; Robert Martin, membership chairman; Charles John, parliamentarian; F. E. Brannon, philanthropy chairman; Lee Scott, ways and means; and Walter J. Fleming Jr., publicity.

Las Vecinas' first fund raising event of the year will be its annual Benefit Pancake Breakfast and Carnival to be held Oct. 13 at El Retiro Park.

Weister-Scotto Vows Read

St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church in Lomita was the scene for the ten o'clock nuptial mass and ceremony on Aug. 24 in which Miss Cynthia Lea Weister, daughter of Mrs. Jeannette L. Weister, 2883 W. 235th St., Harbor City, became the bride of Frank Anthony Scotto. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scotto, 2363 W. 237th St., are parents of the bridegroom.

Escorted to the altar by her brother, Robert Weister, the bride wore a gown of Chantilly lace over satin, fashioned with a batteau neckline, short sleeves and a cathedral train falling from the shoulders. A lace petal headpiece held her bouffant veil and she carried a bouquet of white orchids, stephanotis and carnations.

Attired in yellow crepe and lace gowns and carrying white daisies, attendants were Miss Linda Wall, maid of honor; Misses Sheila Weister, Judy Clemens, and Linda Beaman, bridesmaids; Jannette Clemens and Donya Beaman, flower girls.

Nick Scotto served his brother as best man and ushers were John Ruggerio, Steve Navarre and Roger Caughlin. Mark Clemens and John Beaman were ring bearers.

Rev. T. C. Gorman officiated at the marriage as Dorothy Comerski, organist, played the nuptial music.

The 250 guests were entertained at a reception at the Torrance Lomita Board of Realtors Hall and the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Laguna Beach and the Disneyland Hotel.

MRS. FRANK ANTHONY SCOTTO

(Photography by Stanford)

The bride, a Torrance College graduate, is employed by Standard Oil of California. The new address is 22608 Ocean Ave., Apt. 5, Torrance.

In Last Minute Flurry

As time draws near for their mammoth fashion and music benefit, which will take place Friday at 11 a.m., Torrance Junior Woman's Club members do a double check on ticket sales and fashions. On the bench in the background, from left Mrs. Karl Keidser and Mrs. John Dunbar recheck the membership list to see that all Juniors are there while in foreground, Mmes. Marcel Derouin and Charles Daniels take a sneak peek at the fashions. (Press-Herald Photo)