

Mrs. Carrell to Attend Industrial Nurses Meet

Marie M. Carrell, R. N., president of the Western Association of Industrial Nurses, will attend the 16th annual Presidents' Meeting of the American Association of Industrial Nurses, Inc. AAIN is the specialty organization of approximately 6,000 registered professional nurses representing 1,732 industries throughout the nation. The meeting will be held Sept. 28 and 29 at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York City.

Mrs. Carrell is senior staff occupational health nurse at TRW Systems, Redondo Beach. She is a graduate of Lake View Hospital School of Nursing, Danville, Ill., and has been engaged in the field of occupational health nursing for the past 15 years.

Xi Thetas To Hear Talk On Orphanage

Xi Xi Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will hold its first regular business meeting for 1968-1969, at the home of Mrs. Jerry Duerre, 6925 Abbottswood Drive, Palos Verdes Peninsula this evening at 8.

The guest speaker will be Efrain Conrique, vice president of the Foundation for Children in Tecate, Mexico. Color slides will be shown of the activities of the Foundation. The speaker will discuss the work being done at the orphanage and progress being made on a new school building for the 31 orphans in the Foundation.

the national association. She is a past president of the Harbor Area Association of Industrial Nurses and currently serves on the Gavel Committee and as historian for the group.

In addition to serving various offices and committees for the local, state and regional associations of AAIN, Mrs. Carrell, a resident of Torrance, is active in community affairs. She is a charter member of the Wesleyan Service Guild, a member of the Altrusa Club of Redondo Beach, and the American Red Cross Nursing Service.

Vacationers Visit Ranch Of TV Fame

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butterfield, their son, Joe, and a friend, Danny Thornton, vacationed at Lake Tahoe, Reno, Carson City and Virginia City, Nev.

A highlight of their trip was their visit to the new Ponderosa Ranch of "Bonanza" television fame, now open to the public at Incline Village, Nev., near Crystal Bay. The ranch house, museum, riding stables, trading post, have been authentically reproduced. The stars of the Bonanza show spend a great deal of time at the new ranch.

Enroute to their vacation area, the foursome stopped in Salinas for a visit with Mrs. Butterfield's mother, Mrs. Lillian Nicol, who now lives at the Catholic Daughter Madonna Manor.

Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield spent the last few days of their vacation in Las Vegas as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Butterfield.

Time To Bank The Fire

Meat, barbecued as you like it, will be the main fare at the Mothers of Twins Club's annual barbecue Saturday evening at 7 p.m. at the Leroy Cramer home in Torrance. Husbands will barbecue the meat, which each couple will bring, and the club will furnish salad, rolls and beverage. There will be music for dancing. Mrs. Tom Webb is chairman. Grouped around the brazier are, from left, Mmes. Jerry Steinbrecher, co-chairman, Leroy Cramer hostess, watching Mrs. Sidney Valentine pouring charcoal in the barbecue. (Press-Herald Photo)

Home Economists to Hear Market Expert

William Shubin, marketing manager of Del Amo Financial Center, will speak to members and friends of "Home Economists in Homemaking" at the group's first meeting Friday, Sept. 20, at 7:30 p.m. His topic will be "Birth and Future of the Financial City." A tour of the center follows for those attending the meet in the Community Room of Western Federal Savings and Loan Assn. at 21525 Hawthorne Blvd.

Husbands of members are invited to this first meeting. Also invited are prospective members living in the area. College graduates with a major or minor in home economics, and who are not employed full time are eligible.

"Home Economists in Homemaking" is a division of the American Home Economics Association. The purpose of the organization is to keep homemakers apprised of the latest developments in their field. Guest lecturers, field trips and demonstrations are included in the year's program.

Interested women are asked to call Mrs. Nick Apostol, president, for further information and reservations. Mrs. Peter Miller may also be contacted.

Mexican Official Visits Relatives

Robert Gomez Reyes, Lieutenant Governor of the State of Nayarit, Mexico, spent two weeks here recently visiting his three nieces and their families, Mmes. William Olivera, Joseph Arriola and Benjamin Chavez, all of Torrance. Accompanying him back to Mexico City was his sister, Mrs. Mary Carrizosa of North Torrance, who will spend two months there. A highlight of her visit will be attending the Olympic Games.
