

County Cancer Society Honors Local Volunteer

A Manhattan Beach resident has been judged the Los Angeles County branch's top American Cancer Society volunteer for the 1967-68 year.

Mrs. B. Jack Ansley, who earlier this month was honored for her work with the Centinela Valley-South Bay District, was presented a National Certificate of Merit by Allan K. Jonas, president of the county organization.

The award, citing a four-year span of outstanding service in overall program work on both the county and district levels, was the first of three to bring honors to the local 23-community district at the Society's countywide annual meeting.

A PLAQUED certificate commending the district on record achievement in public information and another noting its program of service for cancer patients were accepted by Mrs. Raymond Lucke of Hermosa Beach, new district council chairman, and Mrs. Gertrude Carpenter of Lomita.

A spirited community leader and one of 17 members of the California Commission on the Status of Women, Mrs. Ansley began her American Cancer Society service in 1963 by assuming leadership roles with the local district's annual fund-raising Crusade.

A successful Chapter Workshop, culminating in the organization of three community chapters, highlights her extensive work with the Education Committee.

MAJOR developments in the area's ACS Public Information program, including a bi-monthly newsletter published for some 700-year-around volunteers — have been credited to Mrs. Ansley's skills in photography, writing, and design.

Mrs. Ansley's association with the branch organization includes service on the Executive Committee, Board of Directors, and four major service committees.

Pledging continued service in support of the 'fight against cancer,' Mrs. Ansley has accepted the elected office of secretary with the Los Angeles Branch and the appointment as Education Chairman for the local district for the 1968-69 year.

Blood Donors Wanted

Donors who give blood at the Red Cross community blood mobiles in October will provide three-way protection — they will protect themselves, their families, and at the same time protect those who need blood but have no one to give for them.

"This same kind of protection is extended to members of organizations that participate in the blood program as groups. They are eligible whether or not they have donated blood themselves, and so are the family members of the group," said Mrs. Helmer Anderson, Red Cross community blood program recruitment chairman for Southern Los Angeles communities.

The Los Angeles-Orange Counties Red Cross blood program provides nearly 200,000 pints of blood annually to more than 200 community hospitals, according to Mrs. Anderson.

In this area, a Red Cross bloodmobile will visit the Elks Lodge, 1735 West 162nd St., Gardena, today from 2 to 6:30 p.m., and the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd., next Monday from 12:30 to 5 p.m.

Work Slated

Temcor of Torrance has been awarded a $7,870 contract for removing, cleaning, painting, and reinstalling an existing sign structure on the Harbor Freeway north of 190th Street. The contract was awarded by the State Department of Public Works.

NEW WORKER... Katy Slater, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dartt of Torrance, has recently been named a Peace Corps volunteer after completing 11 weeks of training at San Jose State College. She will be stationed in the Philippines after further training.

Torrance Man Takes Own Life

The body of Joe Edward Vota Jr., 39, of 3515 W. 228th Place, was discovered by a neighbor about 3:40 p.m. Wednesday. Police said Vota was sprawled over his bed with the barrel of a .22 caliber rifle in his left hand. He appeared to have been dead for some time.

Police found a note in the victim's pocket which read, "Please contact my mom and dad. Tell them I love them very much."

Stone and Myers are handling funeral arrangements.

Democrats Plan Dinner To Honor King, Anderson

Congressman Cecil King and former Lt. Gov. Glenn Anderson will be honored at a dinner Friday in the Grand Ballroom of the International Hotel.

The festivities will begin with a cocktail hour at 7:30 p.m., followed by dinner at 8:30 p.m. Cost is $25 per couple.

The event is sponsored by the Four Hundred For Dinner Committee, headed by Businessman Ronald Moran.

Anderson's political career began at the age of 27, when he was elected mayor of Hawthorne. He was the youngest mayor in the United States.

The candidate served as Assemblyman for the 68th Assembly District from 1942 to 1950. His term as assemblyman was interrupted when Anderson waived legislative immunity to serve in the armed forces. Anderson served as lieutenant governor of California from 1958 to 1966.

CONGRESSMAN King is retiring from the House of Representatives after 27 years of service to the voters of the 17th Congressional District. Anderson hopes to take King's place. The candidate won the Democratic primary election for the seat last April.

CONGRESSMAN King is dean and chairman of the California congressional delegation and gained national recognition for his work in formulating the present Federal Medicare Program.

Co-chairman of the event is Russ Thor of Torrance. Among the sponsors are Mayor Albert Isen, E. Jack Lane, Vel Meletich, Jerry Moss, Bill Piercey, Leo Salisbury, Chris Sorenson, George Wing, and Andrew Yeiser, all of Torrance.

McCarthy Backers Set Event

A cocktail party to raise funds for a McCarthy for President write-in campaign will be held Friday evening at the home of John Barton, 4160 Via Lado.

Funds raised at the party, scheduled for 8 p.m., will be used for radio, television, and newspaper advertising, as well as bumper stickers and other literature, for a write-in campaign for the Minnesota senator.

The write-in campaign was planned after an effort by the Californians for Alternative in November failed in a petition drive to qualify McCarthy for the Nov. 5 ballot.

McCarthy headquarters are located at 2368 W. Torrance Blvd.
