

Delighted With Script

Lady Lion committee members meeting this week to work out final plans for the benefit theater party couldn't resist taking a peek at the script of "Generation," current production of the Palos Verdes Players. On the stairs, from left, Mmes. Joe Banando and John Ritchie catch a funny line, while, seated at left, Mrs. Clarence Clark looks at plot. Making sure there's a full house at curtain time are, standing, Mrs. Louis Assink, president, and Mrs. Ross Morris, ticket chairman.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Lady Lions Sponsor Theater Benefit For Library Braille Room

An evening of theater preceded by a cocktail party, was chosen by the Torrance Lioness Club as its money raising event to help furnish the Braille room at the City's new library.

At 7:30 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 11, the Lady Lions and their guests will assemble in the lobby of the Palos Verdes Playhouse in the Plaza for cocktails. The curtain goes up at 8:30 for William Goodhart's hit comedy, "Generation," directed by Austin Rheingold.

Mrs. Ross Morris is serving as general chairman of the benefit party. She is being assisted by Mmes. Louis Assink, Lioness president; John Ritchie, immediate past president; Joe Banando and Clarence Clark.

Here For The Show

Cyndy Streater, airlines travel consultant, talks over one of the fashions to be shown at the Episcopal Women's show with Sydney North, designer. The parade of designer fashions will take place Tuesday, Oct. 15, at the Torrance Elks Hall, 1820 Abalone.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1968

A-10

Stars-Stripes-Polka Dots

Spark Fashion Spectacular

Two evenings of fashion, entertainment, prizes and refreshments are being planned by the Serra High School Mothers Club for the 14th consecutive year. The events are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 21 and 22, at the Serra High School auditorium, 14830 Van Ness Ave. in Gardena.

A patriotic theme "Stars and Stripes and Polka Dots" has been chosen for this year's shows, according to Mrs. Jerry Conger, Mothers Club president. Guests will assemble each evening at 7 p.m. for a social hour and the fashion parade is slated for 8 p.m.

A number of door prizes will be awarded and as a special attraction on Monday evening an expense-free three-night stay at the Hacienda Hotel in Las Vegas will be awarded. Another grand prize has been chosen for the Tuesday evening affair.

Mrs. J. Pessy is serving as general chairman of the annual fashion shows, with Mrs. N. Bellmore as her co-chairman.

Heading other committees are Mmes. K. Powell, T. Starkovitch, A. Campean, L. Dvorak, B. Donahue, J. Wooley, P. O'Brien, P. Fiorello, J. Cabera, T. Young, B. Del Faro and G. Tatto.

Others are Mmes. L. Holt, L. Boutte, V. Thembly, G. Hellman, R. Safio, J. Kallack, W. Quinn, J. Long, D. Matson, C. Waterkotte, P. Viau, P. Cooper, F. Conaty, D. Crowell, E. Schmolder, M. Paradiso and H. Sweet.

Tickets will be on sale at the door or may be purchased in advance from any committee member.

Red, White and Blue Events

Fashions created for every member of an American family will be paraded in patriotic settings when Serra Mothers Club stages its two fashion shows, Oct. 21 and 22. Busy committee members, from left, Mmes. Glenn Hellman and Lars Holt, use flags and flowers to create table centerpieces as Mmes. Harry E. Sweet, ways and means chairman, and Bruce Del Faro, program chairman, set up music and other entertainment.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Church Women Present

Designer Fashion Parade on Oct. 15

Unified Women of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church will sponsor a "Flight Into Fashion" presentation of the new fall and winter creations at the Torrance Elks Hall, 1820 Abalone Ave., on Tuesday evening, Oct. 15, at 8 p.m. Mrs. Adam Krauszer is serving as chairman of the event.

Cyndy Streater, women's travel consultant for the airlines, will moderate the program in which top fashions by outstanding California designers will be shown. Among the designers showing will be Mr. Blackwell, Sydney North and Eddy George. Fashions for flight, packing demonstration, and shopping tips will be given by Miss Streater.

The program, directed toward inspiring new interests in travel along the southern transcontinental route and into the Caribbean, will feature among the wardrobes, those from the Jamaica Fashion Guild, which is noted for hand-screened prints in vibrant Caribbean colors.

Among the members modeling will be Mmes. Glenn Hal, George Post, Fred Wilkes, Charles Ray, Robert Ringer; and Misses Karen Taylor, Sheri O'Leary, Leslie Hall, Peggy Post and Peggy Atkins. Organ music will be played during the fashion parade.

After the show, a dessert will be served by Mrs. Krauszer, assisted by Mmes. Glen Hall and Martin Pintarelli.

Tickets for the event, open to the public, are now on sale and may be secured from Mrs. Krauszer or any member.

Sisterhood Opens Year

Temple Menorah Sisterhood will serve a brunch at its first general meeting of the year on Wednesday, Oct. 9, at 10 a.m. The brunch will be held in the Gold Room of Temple Menorah, 1101 Camino Real. Following the meeting, members will hear Rabbi Harry Essrig of University Temple of Brentwood, who will be the guest speaker for the morning. Sisterhood president, Mrs. Mark Frisman, invites all Temple women to attend and hear the new plans for the coming year. Mrs. Nan Satton is taking reservations for the brunch.

Kibitzing The Game

Their first benefit for the year will be a "Las Vegas Night" sponsored by Nativity Mothers Club on Columbus Day, Oct. 12, from 8 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Parish Annex on Engracia. There will be door prizes, games, refreshments and dancing to the music of The New Dimensions. Major door prize is an all-expense three-day "Hacienda Hotel Holiday." Taking time out for a practice session are committee members, from left, standing, Mmes. Larry Moeder, decorations; Harold Foley, publicity; and David Berganini, decorations, kibitzing a game played by, left, Mrs. Curtis Brown, who has just found out she's gone over 21, as Mrs. Louis Galluci, general chairman, tells her to "hit me again." Other chairmen are Mmes. Richard Walsh, William Froehlich, Ray Montenegro, Robert Dobson, Larry Jutas, and Robert Swanson. Tickets may be secured at the door or by calling Mrs. Froehlich.

(Press-Herald Photo)

Future Bride

Wood - Poling

At an Open House given by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wood last Sunday afternoon at their home, 4605 Reese Rd., more than 60 friends and relatives were told of the engagement of their daughter, Sharon Lynne, to Scotty Aaron Poling of Torrance.

Parents of the future bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Farr of Fort Worth, Tex.

A spring 1969 wedding is being planned. The bride-elect was graduated from South High School in 1964 and El Camino College in 1966. She received her BA in English from the University of California at Santa Barbara in June and is presently working on her elementary teaching credentials at California State at Long Beach.

Her fiance received his early education in Texas and was recently discharged from the United States Coast Guard, having served four years. He is attending El Camino College and is employed by General Telephone Co.

SHARON WOOD