4-H Champ

Girl Wins $50 Bond In Science

Seventeen-year-old Lynn Kelly of Torrance has been awarded the 4-H Club's first prize in veterinary science for the state of California. She will receive a $50 savings bond for her work.

Miss Kelly is a 7-year member of the Mustang 4-H Club. Her projects have included clothing, entomology, junior leadership, dairy goat, rabbit, and veterinary science. She has won the county medal in entomology twice and was selected Los Angeles County 1968 All Star.

Miss Kelly is president of the Hi 4-H district council and was the winner of a merit award in junior leadership.

Lynn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Kelly, 603 W. 214th St.

Industry Council Will Meet

"Scrooge Revisited" will be the topic of a talk to be presented by Mike Robinson, director of the South Bay Children's Health Center Association, at a luncheon meeting of the South Bay-Harbor Industry-Education Council tomorrow. The meeting is set for the Indian Village Restaurant, 4020 Pacific Coast Highway, at noon.

Robinson, who has been with the health center since its inception 11 months ago, will describe the center's accomplishments to date.

Dedicated to the encouragement of communication cooperation between industry and schools, the South Bay-Harbor chapter is a local affiliate of the Industry-Education Council of Southern California.

VFW Post Seeking Members

General Rosecrans Post 3261, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Gardena, has begun its annual membership drive. Commander Ray Treval has extended a special invitation to veterans of the Vietnam War, reminding them that the post assists veterans and their widows in obtaining government benefits.

The post also supplies volunteer assistance to needy or handicapped veterans and their dependents.

VFW membership is open to all active duty and honorable discharge veterans of the Armed Forces who have served in any foreign war, insurrection, or expedition, or in hostile waters.

Student Named Semi-Finalist

Robert J. Shope, a senior at West High, has been named a semi-finalist in the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

Shope attended West High as a freshman and spent his sophomore and junior years at the American School in Tehran, returning to West to complete his senior year.
