

'Goblin' Festival

The week of goblins and ghosts finds members of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club busy with Halloween activities in addition to other club work. Children of club members were entertained at a pre-Halloween party, held at Higgins Brickyard.

Costume parade, prizes, games and a puppet show were topped with punch and cookies. Mrs. LeRoy Lindsey, was in charge of the event.

Torrance Juniors seem to go in many directions during one week — a 22-member delegation will be attending the Marina District meeting in Redondo Beach, hostessed by the Redondo Beach Dianas.

Fresh flower arrangements, enjoyed every week by the staff and visitors at the Waleria Library, have been the work of one local woman, Mrs. William Belford, for the past 2½ years. Mrs. Belford, art chairman for the Los Celines Garden club, donates flowers, containers and accessories and makes the arrangements, one for the counter and the other for the filing case at the library every week, totaling 64 arrangements a year, never repeating her design. The talented club member also designs and makes the covers for the Los Colinas year book, which won the award from Los Angeles-Bay Harbor District, California Garden Clubs, Inc. Mrs. Belford is pictured here with Mrs. Helen DeLanoy, left, head librarian.

'Love' Topic For Chapter's Nov. 4 Program

"Interpretation of Love" will be presented by Mrs. Don Sugden and Mrs. Robert Wade to the members and guests of the Rho Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi on Monday, Nov. 4.

Mrs. Andrew Bliss of Hawthorne will hostess the 8 p.m. meeting.

On Saturday Nov. 2, a rummage sale will be held at the Hitching Rack with all the proceeds going to the chapter's service projects.

Aid Mexican Orphanages Peninsula Friends To Open Year with Film

Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos will hold its first fall event on Wednesday, Oct. 30, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Bradley, Palos Verdes Estates.

A movie, "The Long Journey," produced in color by the Hour of St. Francis will be shown. This is a sequel to "Our Little Brother" which is the story of Alfredo, a badly burned Mexican orphan, who was given a home by Rev. William Wasson at his orphanage.

Peninsula Friends of Nuestros Pequenos Hermanos was organized by Dr. and Mrs. Andrew J. DePaolo in 1965 following a trip to Mexico City, Cuernavaca, and Hacienda Alcoman, where an eye-witness assessment was made of the needs of Father Wasson's three Mexican orphanages.

Original Lithographs Shown at Gallery

Art lovers are provided with the opportunity of seeing signed original lithographs and serigraphs by international artists now being presented at the Del Amo Art Gallery, 21360 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance. The exhibit, which will continue through Nov. 5, is open daily from 10:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. except on Monday when doors remain open until 9 p.m.

Original works displayed are those by Pablo Picasso, Joan Miro, Salvador Dali, Sister Mary Corita, Mallard Sheets, Robert E. Wood, Edward Chavez, Nag Arnoldi, Jose Clemente Orozco, Margaret Cornelius and Arthur Miller.

Show stoppers are Pablo Picasso's "Ceret" poster, a linoleum cut edition of 125 and a limited edition of 50. These as well as other Picasso graphics in this exhibit are listed in George Block's "Picasso Catalogue of the Printed Graphic Works 1904-1967."

Joan Miro's work, also of an earlier period, shows the transition in this 85-year-old artist's life.

Holder of the national award for graphics, Sister Mary Corita has borrowed a theme from Thoreau, Nag Arnoldi, Swiss Italian con-
