

Benefit Premiere Slated Wednesday

A charity benefit premiere of "Gone With the Wind" scheduled Wednesday at the Rolling Hills Theatre has taken on a "homecoming" flavor with the announcement today that Miss California of 1969, Sharon Kay Terrill of Torrance, is indeed coming home.

Miss Terrill has been on a whirlwind tour of engagements from coast to coast since becoming Miss California just months ago in Santa Cruz, and since the recent Miss America finals in Atlantic City, N.J., has been on an eastern tour for the Toni Co.

Her appearance at the charity event will mark her first major area appearance since becoming Miss California, and the sponsoring Palos Verdes Kiwanis Club, and theatre, are going all out to welcome her home.

PLANS CALL FOR Miss Terrill to arrive at the theatre for a pre-show party in a horse-drawn carriage, symbolic of transportation used

Carnivals Scheduled Tomorrow

Goblins, witches, and ghosts will cover the landscape tomorrow evening visiting Halloween Carnivals to be held at municipal recreation centers throughout the Harbor Area.

The evening carnivals will also be open to the entire community from pre-schoolers to senior citizens with festivities beginning at 6:30 p.m. at most centers, according to Miss Georgiann Budder, Harbor District supervisor for the Los Angeles Recreation and Parks Department.

Costume parades, bonfires, teen dances, grease poles, game contests, and food booths are some of the activities planned by local centers for the community event, Miss Budder said.

Participating centers will include: Harbor City Recreation Center, 24901 Frampton Ave., Harbor City, and Normandale Recreation Center, 22400 S. Halldale Ave.

in the "Gone With the Wind" era. Pre-show activities, scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. outside the theatre, will feature the 70-piece marching band from Palos Verdes High School.

Welcoming Miss California on her arrival will be beauty titlists from surrounding cities, including Lomita, Redondo Beach, and Torrance.

THERE WILL be an area set aside outside the theatre for persons wishing to view the pre-show festivities, including the arrival of Miss California.

Kiwanis ticket chairman Jack Bauman also reports that some tickets are still available for the premiere. They may be purchased at the Palos Verdes Water Co., 27777 Silver Spur Road, Rolling Hills, and Hayden Stone, Inc., in the Malaga Cove Shopping Center.

Tickets are also available at the theatre box office.

Nurses to Meet

Representing Torrance Unified School District at a conference of the California School Health Association in Fresno this weekend will be Mrs. Muriel Cassidy, school nurse.
