

ECC Play In Final Weekend

The first fall play at El Camino College this year goes into its final two performances this weekend in the Campus Theater.

"Billy Budd," written by Louis O. Coxe and Robert Chapman, is based on the novel by Herman Melville. The production is directed by William Buck, theater arts instructor.

The play is one of excitement, pageantry and color situated on board a British ship in 1789.

"Besides examining the deadly conflict when good and evil collide, the script also possess some age-old problems and questions about justice, questions of grave importance to today's young men and women who are also seeking satisfactory and workable answers," said Buck.
