Setting of tikis, ginger, hibiscus and palms

League Schedules Benefit Aloha Dance

Giant carved tikis, fragrant ginger, tall palms, and hibiscus floral arrangements will transform the gym of Serra High School, 14830 S. Van Ness Ave., into a tropical paradise for the Gardena Marianist League's Aloha dance on Saturday, Nov. 23, beginning at 9 p.m. Real flower leis will be flown in from Hawaii for the guests, and Hawaiian or informal attire will be the dress for the evening.

Music for dancing will be provided by the Moonglows. Authentic Hawaiian entertainment will be presented by Mr. and Mrs. Al Pelavo, Mrs. Walter Hanf, Mrs. Ginny Fiorello, Mrs. Wanda Komick, Mrs. Rita Stringfellow, Mr. and Mrs. Jim White, Mr. and Mrs. Monte Monteros, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Curley, Mrs. Frank Appell, Mrs. Charles Stoddard, Mrs. Rose Edwards, and Mr. Ed Doolittle.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. George Neeland of Redondo Beach. She will be assisted by Mr. Doyle Wiswell, Marianist League president.

Proceeds of the annual benefit dance will be used to further the work of the Marianist order in educational fields and in missionary work.

For reservations and tickets, Mrs. Doyle Wiswell, may be called.

Guests at Governors' Convention

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Work (nee Nancy Whyte) of Pasadena will be guests at the Republican Governors' Convention in Palm Springs on Dec. 4 through 7. Special guests at the convention will be President-elect and Mrs. Richard Nixon.

Mrs. Work's mother, Mrs. Grover Whyte of Torrance, will go to Pasadena to stay with the children, Allison, William and Telford, while their parents are away.

Assemblywoman To Be AAUW Guest Speaker

Assemblywoman March K. Fong will discuss "The Status of Women as Legislators" at the meeting of the Palos Verdes-Rolling Hills Branch of the American Association of University Women tomorrow evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Palos Verdes Main Library.

Assemblywoman Fong, one of three women elected to the California Legislature, will speak on "The Role of the Woman Legislator." She will tell of her experiences in overcoming the obstacles, if any, of a woman in education and in the legislature.

A native Californian, Mrs. Fong holds degrees from UC Berkeley, Mills College and a doctorate in education from Stanford. Prior to her election in the fifth Assembly District in 1966, she served on the Alameda County school board.

Vice-chairman of the Committee on Revenue and Taxation, she also serves on the committees on education and public health. She has also authored many bills during her two years in the legislature concerning education, public health, revenue, taxation, highway safety, and consumer affairs.

The guest speaker is a member of the Oakland Branch of AAUW.

Los Verdes Country Club will be the festive setting for the Torrance Welcome Wagon Club's tenth annual Holiday Dinner Dance on Saturday evening, Nov. 30. Dinner will be served at 8 followed by dancing to music of the Paul Hendricks orchestra. Adding to the gaiety of the evening, a large number of door prizes will be awarded. Displaying the holiday gift items and decorations for the social event are from left Mmes. William D. Rittenhouse, publicity chairman; Ray Bartholme, decorations; Jon Mason, dance chairman; Harry Williams, tickets; and William Hayden, club treasurer. Anyone wishing tickets may call Mrs. Jon Mason, 202 Via La Soledad, Redondo. (Press-Herald Photo)

Holiday Dinner Dance

Steering the South Bay Chapter of Women's American ORT on the right course for its "Treasure Island Buffet Auction" on Nov. 23 is Mrs. Mel Schwartzburg, right, chairman of the event. At the left, two committee members, Mmes. Albert Davis and Jerome Chaton, sort out items to be auctioned. Members and guests will gather at 7:30 p.m. at the Lobster House, Kings Harbor, Redondo for an evening of fine food and the excitement of bidding at a Celebrity, Chinese, Fashion and Boutique Auction. A professional auctioneer will call. Proceeds will go to the ORT building fund, which furnishes classrooms, laboratories and workshops wherever they are needed around the world to rehabilitate the unfortunate. (Press-Herald Photo)

Full Speed Ahead

Extend Musical Bid

The call to an evening in the islands when the Marianist League stages its Aloha Dance Saturday evening is extended in musical rhythm by Mrs. George Mendes shaking the feathered gorges and Mrs. Doyle Wiswell beating out a rhythm on the drums. Proceeds will go to the Marianist order for its educational and missionary programs. (Press-Herald Photo)
