A Wish for a Happy Holiday

County Supervisor . . . streets and schools where our children may learn. Too often we take these things for granted. But there are many people in this troubled world who have none of them — not even the "little things."

Even as we enjoy abundance here, American men are making great sacrifices on the field of battle to protect and preserve it for us. We must ever be mindful of them.

I hope your Thanksgiving will be full and happy, and that you and your loved ones will have an opportunity to be together and give thanks for all our blessings.

Art Show Scheduled At Center

Adding to its usual assortment of activities, the Albert Bartlett Center will present its first annual Arts and Crafts Show and open house beginning Friday.

The three-day exhibit will feature work done by members of the adult center, including oil paintings, wood carvings, knit work, and hooked rugs.

A reception will be held for all exhibitors, club members, and invited guests from 12 to 2:30 p.m. at which there will be a fashion show. From 2:30 until 5 p.m. the public will have the opportunity to view the various art exhibits.

Saturday a public showing of the art exhibits will be held from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and again on Sunday from 12 to 5 p.m.

Adults are always welcome to participate in the numerous activities that take place at the Bartlett Center which is located at 1318 Cravens Ave.

Canada Fest

The annual Christmas Dinner of California Nova Scotia Society will be held Sunday at 2 p.m. at Knott's Berry Farm. Former residents of Canada, particularly those from the eastern provinces, are welcome to attend, according to Clifford S. LeCain, president.
