

Harbor Chooses ASHC Officers

Wesley Ray LaCuesta was elected president of the Associated Students of Harbor College for the spring semester in a recent run-off election.

LaCuesta and his vice presidential running mate Richard Bredahl totaled 350 votes against the opposition of Mike Palmer and Richard Rupert who gained 178. A previous election eliminated the team of Dwight Hunt and Debbie Jackson.

LaCuesta, who was student body vice president this semester, lives with his wife Swani and three children at 1021 E. M St. in Wilmington. He plans to major in religious education and possibly teach in college. He is employed as a youth director for the Silverado Methodist Church in Long Beach.

WORK EXPERIENCE

The Labor Department has approved a $2-million experimental contract with the Watts Labor Community Action Committee to give work experience and job training to 500 young people from the Watts area of Los Angeles. The youngsters will live and train in a rehabilitation center 3 miles from their homes.

Bredahl, a graduate of Narbonne High School, lives at 26366 Eshelman Ave. in Lomita. He is a freshman and majoring in business administration. He has been active in student and class government.

Elected at the same time to the Student Senate were Steve Aldridge, Sherry Fernand, Debbie Feidberg, Linda Judd, Ellen Rodriguez, David Lewin, Don Earnock, Mike Crowder, Robert Warnock, Sue Meeks, Janet Glowa, Karen Mokolofsky, Barbara Sweaney, Dodi Pouloupoulos, and Rourke Finley.

Gigi Perreau to Head March of Dimes Drive

"This is not just another Tuesday-afternoon-with-the-girls' cause," said TV and film actress Gigi Perreau, in discussing her appointment as Los Angeles County Mothers' March chairman for the January fundraising campaign of the March of Dimes to fight — and prevent — birth defects.

"Who can know better than a mother the pain of seeing a child come into the world with a physical and mental handicap; of watching him watch others at play, unable to join them?" she asked?

The actress, the mother of two healthy children, believes that it is every mother's responsibility "to do all that she can to speed the day when birth defects will no longer threaten our children." As Mothers' March chairman, appointed by District Attorney Evelle J. Younger and Sheriff Emeritus Eugene W. Biscailus, county campaign co-chairmen, she will be helped by more than 100 community volunteer chairmen.

During the 10 years that the March of Dimes has turned its efforts toward the treatment and prevention of birth defects, science has made significant progress, she noted.

"Rh blood disease, once an infant killer, can now be prevented by a newly developed vaccine. A vaccine should also be available soon to prevent German measles, which is a major cause of birth defects," the actress explained. "But the real work is only beginning and must be vigorously supported by each of us — through volunteer time and generous contributions."
