

LODGE HONOREES . . . Charles E. Moore (center), of 23040 Moneta Ave., Carson, was installed as Worshipful Master in the Torrance Masonic Temple's 55th annual installation last week. Moore, 46, is employed by Douglas Aircraft in Long Beach, and is flanked by (left) Bob Purcell, Junior Warden; and John Bennett, Senior Warden.

SEEKS VOTES . . . Joe Angelo, considered a leading candidate to be elected Director of District 38 of the United Steelworkers of America, visited in Torrance this week in his quest for support. Up to 90,000 Steelworkers will be eligible to vote in day-long balloting next Tuesday.

Steelworkers to Select Director

Enormous rank and file support is building up for Joe Angelo, subdistrict director of the United Steelworkers of America in his race for District 38 directorship, his backers reported here following a visit of the Oakland labor leader this week.

Nominated by 98 Steelworker locals, Angelo will face Les Thornton, the nominee of 66 locals, and Dino Papavero, nominated by three locals.

Election of a new Director will be held next Tuesday throughout California, Nevada, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming, South Dakota, Idaho, Utah, Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii. Nearly 90,000 Steelworkers will be eligible to vote, including the members of four locals in Torrance.

Angelo came to California in 1943 at the request of Philip Murray, first president of USWA, and was active in organizing basic steel and other plants throughout the west.

During 25 years as a Steelworkers official, he has organized, negotiated, serviced contracts and arbitrated in the fields of basic steel, fabrication, non-ferrous industries, office and technical, shipyards, foundries, can industry, aluminum, chemicals, and machine shops.

Tartar Teen Talk

Song writing, art, and doing a lot of homework, are all part of Dave Pack's busy life. Dave, a junior, who first became interested in music at age 5 when he picked up a ukelele, is a storehouse of talent.

He is a member of the "Symbols of Tyme," a nine-member band, and plays lead guitar and sings. "The Symbols of Tyme" are a versatile group and playing hard rock to Latin jazz comes naturally.

When asked which type of music he enjoyed most, Dave replied, "I prefer jazzy blues as I can feel it when I play it. It moves me more than any other type and many of my guitar riffs are built around 'jazzy blues.' I do like all types of music, though, in every shape and form."

DAVE HAS also proved to be quite an organizer. In the past, he established three bands. Dave said that the draft, personality conflicts, and his desire to make something new and better resulted in the bands breaking up.

He plays a variety of musical instruments but writes his songs on piano and guitar. There is no specific pattern to his song writing and it is only a matter of what comes to his head, whether it be a lyric or catchy tune.

Presently Dave is taking classical guitar lessons to better his musical career, and four days a week including weekends are devoted to his music.

"My girlfriend takes up the second biggest chunk of my life," commented Dave.

CONCERNING future plans Dave said that he planned to go to college and acquire a good education to fall back on.

At present Dave has no worries because the "Symbols of Tyme" have met with quite a bit of success. They have collected numerous trophies and plaques and won the U.S. Championship in Atlantic City, N.J. Also, they will be the guest band in the National Battle of the Bands in Boston, Mass. next summer.

"WINNING the U.S. Championship was something I'll never forget all my life. Atlantic City was a beautiful city, which I really enjoyed and New York was loaded with smog, cute girls and traffic!"

The Symbols have been working hard on recording their two

Soccer Game Set Sunday

The feature soccer game on Sunday will take place at Rancho La Cienega Stadium when the defending Greater L.A. League champion, the Croatia Club, faces Maccabee A.C. in a south major division game at 2:30 p.m.

With only five league games remaining in the season, the Croatians hold only a one point lead over second place Los Angeles S.C.

Around the World with Stan Delaplane

NASSAU, BAHAMAS—Warm and sunny days now in the rum - and - sugar islands. The rich birds fly south. Oil and tan themselves on the white sand beaches. And in the evenings stack around the dice and roulette tables in a gambling casino the size of a football field.

This is Paradise Island, just over the bridge from Nassau town. It was owned once by the Swedish industrialist Axel Wenner-Gren—I forget what all he owned, but some of it was all the telephone companies of Mexico.

Then by Huntington Hartford. Loaded.

Now the Mary Carter Paint company has built two luxury hotels—Paradise Island and the Britannia Beach, joined together at the Casino. They've sold out the paint company. (And who was Mary Carter?) The stock has gone from $3 to $6, and this is the kind of money manipulation that leaves me way behind.

It seems to be what the tourist wants. The Britannia Beach is full with plasterers still working in the hallways and only one of five restaurants open. (I tried to get a Hertz rent car. No can do.)

The dice table bet is $5 minimum. Blackjack is $5—but a $2 table for ladies. Slot machines are 25 and 50 cents—none of that Las Vegas nickel grind.

Is all well in Paradise? Well, yes and no. At the swank Cafe Martinique last night, the waiters held a half hour sit-down strike in the middle of dinner.

Parks Set Holiday Schedule

The Torrance Recreation Department announced today that the city's parks and playgrounds will be conducting supervised programs on both Lincoln's and Washington's birthdays, Tuesday, Feb. 12, and Friday, Feb. 21.

All parks will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. McMaster and Walteria parks will be supervised from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. All school playgrounds will be open from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

A field trip to the Olympic Ice Skating Rink, 23770 S. Western Ave., will be held Saturday, Feb. 15. All youths and adults are invited to attend. Children under 7 must be accompanied by an adult.

Tickets will cost $2 per person which will include admission to the skating rink, skate rental, bus transportation, and insurance. Registration will be taken at all parks and playgrounds. Buses will leave from Victor Park, 4737 Emerald St.; Walteria Park, 3855 W. 242nd St.; and McMaster Park, 3624 W. Artesia Blvd.; at 1 p.m. and return at approximately 5 p.m.

Island investments are 99 per cent foreign. And the black Bahamians want a piece of the action.

Rooms double at this high season average $68 per day with breakfast and dinner.

"Could you give us some idea of what dress we should expect in the Bahamas?"

Dressier than Hawaii. Dressy resort day clothing. Jackets and ties for men in the evening. (I don't see many dinner jackets though.) Everything is air-conditioned. That means something warm for dinner and the cocktail lounge.

People come here for the warm winter and insist on air-conditioning—I think so they can wear their mink stoles.

"We will be on a West Indies cruise and would appreciate shopping suggestions . . ."

Everything down this way is free port—no tax, no duty—except Puerto Rico. Two big cruise ships were in Nassau yesterday, and we shopped the stores. Cameras, radios, perfume are cheaper than the U.S. But I can buy perfume cheaper by mail from Paris. Generally, I got the idea that Nassau prices are a little higher than other free ports.

"How do you tip on a week's stay in the hotels?"

In the Bahamas hotel maids get $20 a week. A folder in my room suggests we give her a dollar per day. Waiters get $24 (sit-down striking for $40). The suggested tip is 15 per cent of the bill.

A million tourists a year have geared the native black Bahamian to expect a fair size tip. You aren't under pressure, you know. My room maid said this morning, "When are you leaving sir? It's my day off tomorrow."

The Bahamian is dignified. British - accented. Not highly paid and living in a price scale being elevated by American tourists. Friendly, smiling people. Quite different from the Virgin Islanders who are apt to be aloof and taciturn.

Food is excellent, but State-side rather than native. Service good. Prices fairly high. But I'm comparing it to the South Pacific, cheaper, more relaxed and where you are dressed for dinner if you put on a shirt over your khaki shorts.

County Given School Funds

SACRAMENTO—Los Angeles County will receive nearly $1.7 million in state funds for use in the support of child care centers, Dr. Max Rafferty, state superintendent of public instruction, has announced.

A total of $1,699,000 has been apportioned to the county by Dr. Rafferty. Total funds available amounted to more than $3.1 million.

Road Funds Voted for Redondo

Additional funds totaling $102,856 have been allocated to assist Redondo Beach with construction of a new section of Inglewood Avenue, Supervisor Burton W. Chace said today.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday granted the funds for construction of Inglewood between Grant Avenue and Artesia Boulevard.

"This is the second allocation of county gas tax money for this project," Chace said. "The latest grant will assist with construction, while $79,750 was approved in 1966 for right-of-way purchase."

The project is scheduled to get under way in April, with completion scheduled in July. The city of Redondo Beach will supervise construction.

"The new section of Inglewood will open another needed north-south highway in that area," Chace said. The road will provide four lanes for traffic, two parking lanes, curbs, gutters and a raised median divider.

Harvey Reports Increase

An increase in first quarter sales for the period ending Dec. 31, 1968, compared to a similar period a year ago, was reported by Harvey Aluminum, Inc. Net sales for the quarter were $44,032,169 up 14.3 per cent from $38,512,115 for the similar quarter last year.

Net income for the three months period was $8,512,664, including investment tax credit in the amount of $270,000 and a net gain on investment in the amount of $5,689,724, compared to $3,361,255 earned in the same period last year.

Earnings per share, based on the assumption that all convertible securities have been converted, were $1.28, compared to 50 cents Dec. 31, 1967.

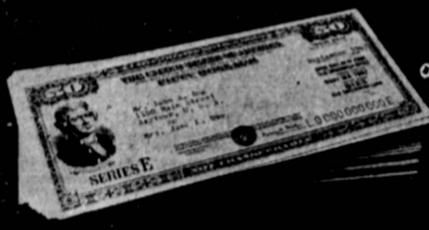

Motorcyclist Injures Leg In Collision

A Lawndale woman suffered a severe laceration on her right leg Monday morning when her motorcycle collided with a car on Hawthorne Boulevard.

Treated at Little Company of Mary Hospital was Patricia Ann Hollman, 25, of 4167 163rd St., Lawndale. Driver of the car was Raymond W. Stockman, 53, of Inglewood.

Both drivers were headed south on Hawthorne Boulevard near Narrot Street when the collision occurred.
