Teachers Of Math To Meet

Richard Imler, Narbonne High School mathematics teacher, will preside at two sessions when the Los Angeles City Teachers of Mathematics Association plays host to elementary, secondary, and junior college math teachers from five Western States.

The conference will be held next weekend and will involve more than 1,500 mathematics teachers from California, Nevada, Arizona, Hawaii, and Oregon.

Imler will preside at a 1:30 p.m. section meeting Saturday on the subject "Math Can Be Fun." at 10:15 a.m. Sunday he will preside at the general session discussing "Tomorrow's Issues in Mathematics Education."

Imler has been at Narbonne since September. Prior to that he was a teacher at Fleming Junior High School in Harbor City for 6 years.

James Hardesty, an instructor at Pierce College in Woodland Hills and general chairman of the event, reports that 70 specialized presentations will be made on various phases of mathematics instruction. In addition, 10 general sessions will be held featuring well-known mathematics experts.

Auction Scheduled Saturday

Personal property belonging to some 60 estates will be sold at auction Saturday, Baldo M. Kritovich, Los Angeles County public administrator, announced today.

The auction, scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m., will be held at the Public Administrator's Warehouse, 4524 Brazil St., Los Angeles.

A general inspection will begin at 9 a.m. Jewelry and other small items may be inspected at 10 a.m.

All items will be sold "as is" and successful bidders must present cash or a cashier's check in payment at the time of the sale.

TO BE SOLD are pieces and sets of china, dresser sets in sterling and tortoise-shell, black-and-white and color television sets, stereos, tape recorders, musical instruments, movie screens, cameras, and projectors, typewriters, tool sets, and sports equipment.

Major appliances, mirrors, pictures, a patio set, dinette and bedroom sets, and a piano will be offered for sale about noon. Furniture and other major pieces also will be sold about noon.

Jewelry and coins will go on sale about 5 p.m., Kritovich said.

The next regular auction is scheduled for March 29.
