

Bank of America Cites Two College Students

Cash awards of $300 will be presented to El Camino College students Harold McLoud and Jan Aydelotte for their scholastic achievements in the field of business. The presentation will be made at a banquet March 14.

The awards are part of the Business Awards Program sponsored by Bank of America to encourage young people to better prepare for business careers. More than 70 colleges throughout the state participate in the competition each year. Two winners are chosen in college by members of the various faculties.

McLoud is a business administration major with an emphasis on final quantitative business analysis and has maintained a 3.6 grade point average while attending El Camino College. He has since transferred to USC and maintained a perfect 4.0 grade point average through his first semester.

Miss Aydelotte is a secretarial science major who will receive her A.A. degree from El Camino this June. She plans to work this summer as a secretary in Hawaii and then return home in the fall to apply her knowledge towards a job in the local area. The awards are based on scholarship, personality, and participation in school activities or outside employment.
