

RENEE TAYLOR
To Speak Monday

Author To Speak On Monday

"Exotic West Pakistan," a film-lecture program, will be presented next Monday at 8 p.m. by Renee Taylor in the El Camino College Campus Theater.

Included in the program will be such places as Karachi, an international center of sea and air transportation; Thatta, where Alexander of Macedon rested his troops after their march from the North; Lahore, prominent for its Mogul background; Peshawar, scene of the rise and fall of many dynasties and at one time the center of Buddha's teachings; and Rhyber Pass, silent witness to countless events in the history of mankind.

Admission to the lecture is $1, and tickets will be available at the theater box office the night of the program.

Roman Banquet Slated

The annual Roman Banquet of the North High Latin Club will be held Thursday, March 20, at the Torrance Ramada Inn.

Caesar and Calpurnia, portrayed this year by Mike Wilson and Cheryl Hall, will reign over the festivities. All present will be dressed in authentic Roman Togas or tunics. Soldiers, dressed in the uniform of the Roman Legion, will be on hand to protect the noble guests. At the auspicious moment, the crown of laurel leaves will be placed upon Caesar's head by the High Priest, Pete Paldino.

Slaves are being selected from Latin I classes to serve the banquet guests. After performing their duties, the slaves will be auctioned off to the highest bidder.

Among the North High talent which will provide the evening's entertainment are Drew Bradford and the Rabut Sisters of the Young Americans.

Gwen Okamoto and Joyce Yamashita are in charge of decorations, Peggy Atkins and Sandy Sapperstein are handling the entertainment, and Chris Cavanaugh and Lucy Hayashida have charge of the slaves.

Drama Is Cancelled By College

The presentation of award-winning play, "Lamp at Midnight," which was scheduled in the El Camino College auditorium, Friday, March 21, has been cancelled.

Announcement of the cancellation was made by Dr. Robert Haag, coordinator of community services at the college.

Cancellation of the production, which is currently on tour before taking the play to Broadway, came as a result of conflicting dates for the traveling company, Haag said.

The March 19 lecture by Sir Tyrone Guthrie — director of the play — remains unchanged.

Human Relation Group to Meet

The public has been invited to hear a discussion of the Internal Security Act of 1950 at the meeting of the Torrance Human Relations Council tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Torrance Recreation Center, 3341 Torrance Blvd.

Speakers will be Mrs. Yoshimaro Shibuya, a member of the Los Angeles County Human Relations Commission, and attorney Frank Chuman, former national president of the Japanese American Citizens' League.
