

Party Planning Session

Working on final details for the Torrance Hospital Auxiliary's annual Membership Luncheon to be held June 10, are committee members, from left, Mmes. R. L. McDonald, membership chairman, and M. J. Wells, president, checking out seating arrangements for the social event. Mmes. George Post, publicity chairman, Joe Helphand, handling reservations, and Laurence Brown, hospitality chairman, check reservations against the membership list. (Press-Herald Photo)

Local Valedictorians

Given Recognition by Junior Woman's Club

Valedictorians of Torrance's four public and one parochial high schools will receive plaques from the Torrance Junior Woman's Club reflecting their academic achievements. This marks the fifth year the Juniors have presented awards to these outstanding students. Mrs. J. Douglas Hedde, past president, will make the presentations.

Chosen on basis of straight college preparatory classes, all with 3.9 or better grades on 4.0 basis, 11 South High students will be honored on Senior Awards Night, June 10. There are 642 in the class. Honored will be Kenneth C. Austin, who will attend California Institute of Technology; Patricia A. Geddes, future UCLA student; Barbara Goldenberg, Occidental; Ernest D. Gutter, UCB; Patricia Harris, UCSB; Roberta R. Hodges, UCD; Jeanette N. Money, Brigham Young; John S. Peterson, Occidental; Debbie L. Purmont, Pitzer (Pomona College Group); Robert S. Saunders, Stanford; Stanley R. Schiff, UCB.

Senior Recognition Day at North High will be held today. Honored will be William K. Davis, UCLA; Linda Cohen; and Richard Lindel, UCLA.

Torrance High school student to be honored at Senior Awards program today is Deborah Eason, who plans to attend UC at Irvine.

Recognition Night at West High was held Thursday evening. Receiving the Junior Woman's Club recognition was Dorothy J. Cramshaw, who plans to attend Mt. Holyoke, Mass.

At Bishop Montgomery's graduation night, June 1, Michael Sequeira received the Junior Club honor. He plans to attend Pomona College.

Double Checking Plaques

Making sure that all valedictorians are on their list and that certificates and trophies have been inscribed correctly are these Junior Club members, from left, Mmes. Karl Keider, youth chairman, writing names; Leon Taylor, president, reading the list; and Douglas Hedde, immediate past president, holding certificate. Mrs. Hedde made the presentations at the area high schools. (Press-Herald Photo)

Lewis-Broadlick Nuptials Recited

Miss Margaret Rose Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence F. Lewis, 25233 Denny Rd., Torrance became the bride of Michael Giles Broadlick in a recent ceremony at the Torrance First Methodist Church. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. William A. Brinkley of Lomita and Mr. Giles W. Broadlick of Huntington Beach.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a peau de soie gown, which she had designed, fashioned with French lace sleeves and a lace panel. Her tiered silk illusion veil cascaded from an orchid rose and she carried a crescent of white roses.

Wearing a soft pink gown, Mrs. William L. Wanamaker served as her sister's matron of honor.

Michael L. Lewis performed the duties of best man and ushers were Larry Grimes and Alfred G. Lewis. Deborah and Lauri Snodgrass registered the guests at the church.

The Rev. Arthur Nagel officiated at the marriage service which was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

The honeymoon was spent in Mexico.

The bride, a graduate of South High school, attended El Camino College. Mr. Broadlick was graduated from Marina High in Huntington Beach and attended Orange Coast College. He served two years with the United States Army in Vietnam and at Fort Rucker, Ala.

The couple will make their home in Seal Beach.

Auxiliary Schedules

Membership Event

Torrance Memorial Hospital Auxiliary will entertain at its annual Membership Luncheon next Tuesday, June 10, at 11:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Burton, 29 Via Granada, Rolling Hills in the Casa Verdes Town House.

This annual event will honor new members as well as guests and prospective members.

Receiving will be Mmes. Melvin Wells, president; Mrs. Richard McDonald, membership chairman, and Mrs. Burton, hostess.

New members to be presented are Mmes. Max Allomany, Perry Baker, Robert Brady, Donald Erickson, Ben Hatfield, John Schmidt, and Jennie Harris, Torrance; Henry Halverson, Lomita; William Melville, Palos Verdes Estates; Albert Schroth, Palos Verdes Peninsula; Peter Wood, Rolling Hills. New associate members are Mmes. Arthur Grayson and Minnie Smith, Torrance.

Punch will be enjoyed followed by a buffet luncheon served from a table covered by a yellow print cloth and centered by an arrangement of yellow and white daisies.

Mrs. Laurence Brown and Mrs. Joe Helphand are in charge of decorations and table arrangements.

Gala Cruise Closes Las Vecinas Season

A gala Bon Voyage Cruise in the Captain's Ballroom aboard the SS Princess Louise Saturday evening will close the year for the Las Vecinas Woman's Club.

Guests will go aboard at 8 p.m. on the sailing date, June 7, for cocktails and the Captain's dinner will be served at 9 p.m.

While cruising, guests will listen and dance to music furnished by the Leon Guid orchestra.

This year-end cruise of fun for Las Vecinas will be a farewell to the 1968-69 year and an Aloha for 1969-70 season for this philanthropic group.

The cruise is under the direction of Mrs. Jack Reed assisted by Mrs. Donald Meyer, reservations chairman.

Press-Herald

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

A-6

JUNE 6, 1969

Beta Sigma Phi's Attending

State Conclave in San Diego

Approximately 1,500 members of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority are expected to attend the 29th annual state convention of the sorority this weekend at the Hotel Del Coronado, San Diego.

The San Diego City Council of the sorority, hostess unit, has chosen the theme "Viva La Fiesta" to honor the city's 200th anniversary. Invitations have been mailed to 1,000 chapters.

As a courtesy to the hundreds of husbands who will accompany their wives to the convention, a variety of events has been planned for them, and a men's hospitality room with card games and refreshments will be provided.

Events planned for delegates include golf and bowling tournaments, luncheon and dinner parties, deep sea fishing, sight-seeing tours of San Diego and Tijuana and a harbor cruise.

Mrs. Morris Pion of Preceptor Phi chapter is convention chairman, assisted by Mrs. Edwin Kasitz of Xi Kappa Omega chapter.

Mrs. A. W. Anderson, Southern California Council president, and her husband will be in the receiving line Friday evening and will also hostess a Sunday morning "Eye Opener" party.

The International Honorary member will be Walter W. Ross, III, president, and son of the founder of Beta Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Charles Seamer, philanthropic chairman for Southern California Council, will present a check in the amount of $10,000 for Cystic Fibrosis, the state philanthropic project, at the Sunday Breakfast.

Among those attending from the South Bay Area Council will be Mrs. Louis Zelenay, president; Mrs. Lester Teeters, junior past president; Mrs. Louis Brownlee, Miss Martha Oehlerking, Mmes. Robert Nickelson, Clarence Turner, Irving Kurman, Andrew Foster, John Shetler, William Durant and Marvin Scott.

MRS. MICHAEL G. BROADLICK
(Portrait by Seeman)

Las Colinas Installs

Galley West Restaurant at Marineland was the setting for the festive Installation Luncheon held by Las Colinas Garden Club Tuesday, June 3. Mrs. Frank Carroll was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. R. O. Young, president of the foundation of the South Coast Potanic Gardens, was the installing officer.

She gave official duties to, from left, seated, Mmes. Ernest Jacobs, president; James Phillips, corresponding secretary; standing, Mmes. Charles Smith, treasurer, and Peter Moosman, recording secretary. Not pictured, Mmes. Tom Conaty and Ray Fitting, vice presidents.

(Press-Herald Photo)

